12-106649

I admonished the driver on _____ at _____ AM/PM in _____ CA.

1. You are required by state law to submit to a PAS (DUI Probation) or other chemical test to determine the alcohol and/or drug content of your blood.

3. If you refuse to submit to, or fail to complete a test, your driving privilege will be suspended for one year or revoked for two or three years. A second offense within ten years of a separate violation of driving under the influence, including such a charge reduced to reckless driving, or vehicular manslaughter, or a violation of Section 23140 CVC, which resulted in a conviction, or separate administrative determination that you were driving with a BAC of 0.01% or more while under age 21, or a separate administrative determination that you were driving with a BAC of 0.01% or more while on DUI probation, or a BAC of 0.04% while operating a commercial motor vehicle, or a BAC of 0.08% or more at any age, or you refused a test, will result in a two-year revocation. ### 01 VICTIM STATEMENT

On April 21, 2012 at approximately 0310 hrs. I, Officer Canela #365 (DUI11), spoke with [REDACTED] at W. El Camino Ave./Thelma Ave. She stated the following in summary:

I drove to pick my brother [REDACTED] from a party he was at in the El Camino Blvd./Del Paso Blvd. area.

On the way back to our house ([REDACTED] Hawk Ave.), I was driving westbound W. El Camino Blvd. approaching Thelma Ave. where I usually turn southbound to get to my house.

I entered the 2-way left turn lane and a car [REDACTED] driving eastbound W. El Camino Blvd. also entered the 2-way left turn lane.

I was driving at about 35MPH but then immediately hit my breaks to avoid a collision but the other car [REDACTED] never slowed down and crashed into my car.

I was wearing my seat belt and I was not using my cell phone.

After the collision, my brother and I decided to get out of the car to make sure everything was okay. We had to get out through the front passenger seat. As I was getting out, I looked at the other car [REDACTED] and could see the driver (S) had what looked like a rifle. (S) was sitting in the driver seat and then got out of the car [REDACTED].

After (S) exited the car [REDACTED], he pointed the rifle at our direction. I was afraid (S) would shoot us so we decided to run away. We were standing in the middle of the street between Dornie Way and Thelma Ave. on W. El Camino Blvd.

Before we could run away, (S) started shooting right where we were at. I started to run west towards Thelma Ave. As we were running towards Thelma Ave. I looked over at (S) and I would see him shooting randomly. I don't know how many rounds were fired but I would guess between one and ten.

Once we got to Thelma Ave./W. El Camino Blvd., my brother and I headed south on Thelma Ave. I heard the sound of a police sirens and then heard

EVIDENCE EXAMINED

Note: In this report, a two-part number, for example 001-1, references an item. The first portion (001) is the laboratory submission number and the second portion (1) is the item number.

Item	Description
002-14	One Norinco brand, model 56, 7.62x39mm caliber semiautomatic rifle with serial number [REDACTED]
002-14-TF	Three fired cartridge cases and three fired bullets test fired from the submitted Norinco rifle for comparison purposes. (Lab generated evidence)
003-2, 004-4, 005-5, 006-6, 007-8, 008-9, 009-10, 010-11	Eight Tulammo brand 7.62x39mm caliber fired cartridge cases.
011-12	One nominal .40 caliber fired bullet.

EXAMINATION, RESULTS and CONCLUSIONS

Item 002-14 is a Norinco brand, model 56, 7.62x39mm caliber semiautomatic rifle with serial number [REDACTED]. This rifle has a trigger pull of approximately 4 ½ pounds and has a conventionally rifled barrel with 4 lands and grooves and a right hand twist. This rifle will only fire in the semiautomatic mode. Several different tests were performed to determine if the firearm would discharge when bumped or slammed into a concrete floor or wall, however, the rifle would not discharge. This firearm was test fired with no apparent malfunction issues and appears to operate normally. This rifle was successfully test fired three times using laboratory ammunition and the fired bullets and cartridge cases were retained for comparison purposes as Item 002-14-TF.

I microscopically compared Items 003-2, 004-4, 005-5, 006-6, 007-8, 008-9, 009-10, and 010-11 to the cartridge cases test fired from the submitted rifle (Item 002-14). I observed agreement of all discernible class characteristics and sufficient agreement of individual characteristics to conclude that these eight fired cartridge cases were discharged in submitted rifle.

I declare the above named person has been arrested and is detained in the Sacramento County Jail. I am informed of and believe the facts below which establish probable cause to detain this individual. Evidence establishing a crime was committed and the arrested person committed the crime:

☐ Witness ☒ Victim ☐ Officer stated he/she saw/heard the following:

Russell Grant, came to V- apartment holding a rifle in his hand. V- let Grant into her apartment. Grant refused to put the rifle down. V- was leaving the bedroom and was at her bedroom door when Grant fired the gun. The bullet struck a wall a few feet from where V- was standing. V- got her son, and fled the apartment toward her car. V- advised that Grant followed them out of the apartment and demanded her car keys. After a short "tussle" Grant obtained the victim's keys. Suspect Grant fled in the victim's nearby vehicle.

on, V- advised his mother told him they needed to leave because Russell Grant was high and had a gun. V- advised he left the apartment with his mother. V- advised he saw Russell Grant with an "SK" rifle. V- advised Russell Grant pointed the rifle at his mother and demanded the car keys.

At 0245 hours, Sacramento Police began receiving calls regarding a collision at W. El Camino Av/ Dorine Way and a subject with a gun. The intersection is approximately .4 miles from the apartment complex (Google directions mapping).

SPD Officer Surjan and civilian ride-along responded to the traffic collision. A bystander told Ofc. Surjan that a male in one of the wrecked cars was armed with a rifle. Ofc. Surjan immediately saw S-GRANT exit his wrecked car (belonging to victim carrying a rifle. Grant immediately advanced toward Surjan, ignoring commands to drop the weapon. While Surjan retreated for cover behind the patrol car, V- saw GRANT point the rifle at hip level directly at Ofc. Surjan. When GRANT arrived at the driver's side of the patrol car, Ofc. Surjan believed GRANT was going to kill him. Ofc. Surjan fired two rounds at GRANT, missing him. Additional officers arrived, causing GRANT to surrender. A 7.62 caliber assault rifle was recovered from the ground at the scene next to Surjan's patrol vehicle.

S- Grant is a convicted felon and is currently on both formal searchable probation and parole. His most recent felony conviction was 11/30/11 for 11350(A) HS w/with a 5 year probation sentence (docket V-).

***Additional charge: 3056 PC-violation of parole felony - A parole hold was placed by Grant's parole agent.***

On 4-21-12, at approx. 0430 hours, I, Officer [REDACTED] contacted Witness [REDACTED] at [REDACTED] Truxel Rd # [REDACTED]. She state that she wanted to remain anonymous. She stated the following in summary:

I got home around 2:00 AM, and I was with a friend. She left my house shortly after I got home, and I went to bed. Around 2:30 - 3:00 AM, I heard a loud noise. I am not sure what it was, but it startled me and woke me up. I heard the neighbors downstairs (apartment # [REDACTED]) arguing, and I saw the female run outside. I heard the male half say, "Come back here," and then I saw him walk toward the parking lot carrying a rifle. I couldn't believe what I was seeing. I saw the female get into the car, and she backed into the fence on the other side of the parking lot. The male was walking toward her with the rifle, and I got scared. I didn't want to see what was going to happen, so I closed the front door and went back inside. Shortly after that, I heard the vehicle take off toward W El Camino Ave. The male half was African American, and I am not sure what he was wearing.

On 4-21-12, at approx. 0348 hours, I, Officer [REDACTED] was dispatched to the intersection of Dorine Wy/W El Camino Ave regarding an officer involved shooting. I responded to assist with any follow up needed. I arrived at approx. 0348 hours.

Upon arrival, I located a bullet in the middle of W El Camino Ave, and I marked it for CSI to photograph. I continued to search the scene for other evidence, and I did not locate any more evidence. I stood by to see if help was needed for a neighborhood canvas, and I was advised to go to [REDACTED] Stonecreek Dr # [REDACTED] to assist with another scene related to this.

I responded to [REDACTED] Stonecreek Dr # [REDACTED] with Officers Hensley #263, Chipp #325, and Enkoji #588. We were advised that the suspect originally showed up here with the rifle, and he had an argument with his girlfriend/ex-girlfriend ([REDACTED]). A neighbor (Witness [REDACTED]) called in to report that there was a Black male outside the complex with a rifle. Officer Chipp had contacted Witness [REDACTED] at the Dorine Wy location and obtained her statement (see attached). She advised the the suspect shot one round in her apartment, and she gave us the key to her apartment. She gave consent for us to search her apartment. I searched her apartment and located a bullet hole in the master bedroom on the east side of the bedroom. The bullet traveled through the wall into the bathroom and continued in an eastbound trajectory into apartment # [REDACTED]. We went to apartment # [REDACTED] to check on the welfare of the occupants. There was a lone female in the apartment, and she thought that her circuit breaker box blew up. We located the trajectory of the bullet. It continued through the bathroom wall of # [REDACTED], went through the shower curtain, through the bath/shower siding, and went through the circuit breaker box. The bullet continued in an eastbound trajectory through the bedroom door in apartment # [REDACTED], and the bullet lost all momentum after going through the bedroom door. There was fragmentation from the bullet left on the bedroom floor. Officer Chipp contacted the resident and obtained her statement (see attached).

One of the neighbors (Witness [REDACTED]) saw a portion of this incident, so I contacted her and obtained her statement (see attached). She lived in apartment # [REDACTED] and lived with her boyfriend [REDACTED] (dob: [REDACTED], # [REDACTED]). He stated that he heard a loud "bang" that woke him up.

On 4/21/12, at approximately 0414 hours, I, Detective Sgt. R. Chan #3040 (Felony Assaults Unit) was notified of this Officer Involved Shooting call out via telephone from dispatch. I responded to the call out as Unit IV30, to assist Sgt. Enriquez and the Homicide Team with the investigation.

I arrived onscene at West El Camino and Dorine Way at approximately 0450 hours and checked in with the scene recorder. At approximately 0510 hours, I attended the scene briefing given by Acting Sergeant Jared Kiser (#0445/Unit 1SM1) to assembled personnel. At approximately 0540 hours, I, along with Forensics Investigator Kathy Boyd (#6378), Detective Mark Johnson, POA Attorney Dave Mastagni Jr., and SPOA Representative Officer Dustin Smith, conducted a walk through of the scene at West El Camino and Dorine Way with involved Officer Brian Surjan (see Det. Johnson's supplement for details). Detectives Doug Tracy (IV198) and Bryon Schrum (IV199) of the Major Traffic Investigations Team arrived to assist with the scene at West El Camino and Dorine Way (see respective supplements). CSI Officers K. Vu (#0391) and S. Park (#0629) were directed to video tape, photograph and process the scene as well (see respective CSI supplements).

At approximately 0700 hours, I, along with FI Boyd responded to the secondary scene at the Stonecreek Apartments, [REDACTED] Stonecreek Drive. FI Boyd, along with CSI Officers Peirsol (#0431) and Joseph (#0361) video taped, photograph and processed the scene at apartments # [REDACTED], # [REDACTED], and in the adjacent parking lot of the apartment building (see respective CSI supplements). At approximately 0853 hours, I received and secured a Kyocera cell phone (evidence item #4) from CSI Officer Joseph at apartment # [REDACTED]. At approximately 0915 hours, I responded back to the scene at West El Camino/Dorine Way. At 0939 hours, I received and secured a Samsung Metro PCS cell phone (evidence item #12) from CSI Officer K. Vu at West El Camino/Dorine Way.

At Detective Don McCoy's request, at 1000 hours, I located a yellow and black ladies wallet and a ring of house keys in the suspect vehicle (Toyota License # [REDACTED]) and secured them for return to Victim [REDACTED]. I left the ignition key inside the ignition of the vehicle. I also secured a red Kyocera Metro PCS cell phone from Officer Duckham (Unit#0830), which was taken off Suspect Grant during his arrest, for delivery to Detective McCoy as processing. Both the Toyota ([REDACTED]) and the Honda ([REDACTED]) were impounded for evidence.

At 1017 hours, I responded back to [REDACTED] Stonecreek, apartment # [REDACTED] and turned over the wallet and house keys to Victim [REDACTED]. I gave Victim [REDACTED] Detective McCoy's contact information for questions regarding her impounded vehicle and any personal property.

At 1100 hours, I responded to Kinney Police Facility and obtained ICC tapes 13611K (Ofc. Surjan's Vehicle #11012), 4069M (Ofc. Massie's Vehicle #11007), 13616K (Ofc. Farren's Vehicle #11226), 12695K (A/Sgt. Kiser's Vehicle #11234), and 4030M (Ofc. Monroe's Vehicle #10127) from Sgt. Dubke (2SM2) for review and evidence booking by the Homicide Team. I transported the five ICC tapes and the three cell phones in my possession to HOJ and turned them over to Sgt. Enriquez in the Homicide Office.

On 4/21/12, at approx. 0507 hrs., I was contacted by the Sacramento Police Department's Communications Center and was asked to respond to W. El Camino Av. and Dorine Wy. to assist with a traffic collision investigation. I was off-duty at the time and responded from outside the City limits. I arrived on scene at approx. 0555 hrs. Det. B. Schrum (430) also responded to assist with the collision investigation and scene diagramming.

After being briefed on the circumstances of the collision and subsequent events, Det. Schrum and I measured the scene using a Nikon Total Station surveying instrument. Based on the data points recorded by the Total Station, I later created a scale diagram of the scene and provided it to Det. McCoy.

It should be noted that during the capture of points at the scene, the Total Station experienced a power interruption due to batter discharge. A fresh battery was placed on the unit and we continued to record measurements. After downloading the measurements to my computer, I discovered the Total Station had re-set its Northing point at the power interruption and the points captured after that event were incorrectly located. As a result, approx. the last twenty (20) points were deleted from the diagram. All these points consisted of measurements related to the collision (tire friction marks) and fixed points of scene features. None of the points captured prior to the power interruption were affected.

Alpha 17.

DET. JOHNSON:
Single officer unit?

OFC. SURJAN:
Mmm hmm.

DET. JOHNSON:
What time did you start your shift tonight?

OFC. SURJAN:
Last [unintelligible] I would say 2100.

DET. JOHNSON:
Okay. I think the best way to start with is, start with how you got the call, and then just run through everything that you can remember about it. Everything you say and everything that you did.

OFC. SURJAN:
Okay. Uh, I was over at Northgate and San Juan with, uh, Kiser, who is Sam 1. He was on a traffic stop, so I was assisting him. Heard the call come out of a 901 with, you know, basically two cars involved and they said one of the cars might be engulfed in flames, and people running. So I started to respond there. Um, about, somewhere on Northgate, that's when I activated my sirens code three. Pulled up probably about two blocks, block and a half from the scene, because I saw a couple of cars pulled over to the side of the road, and so I looked around for the scene, uh, wherever the collision was. I was looking for flames because they said the cars were engulfed. And so I'm looking around. About that time, I think we got the update that there was someone with a shotgun. Um, so I'm looking around, looking around, keep pulling forward down West El Camino, see both cars. Parked, looking around, don't see anyone. At that time, I got out of my car, standing in the "V" of my doorway, and I hear, there's people standing on the lawn behind me and to my left, and they are saying, uh, "Look out he has a rifle," or something like that. "Watch out, he has a rifle."
So I yelled, "Who has a rifle?" or, "Where is he?" And they say, "In the car right in front of you."

At that point, I drew my handgun. The door opens, I see the, at first I see the, uh, barrel of the rifle come out. And then the guy stands up with the rifle. At that point, I started to order, "Drop the gun." He turns toward me and starts to approach me. I started backing up, "Drop the gun, drop the gun." Trying to create space between me and him, and also to get cover behind, uh, my car. He's approaching, um, I fired two rounds, ducked down behind my car on the passenger side, towards the rear passenger wheel area. I lost sight of him. I had no idea where he was at. I assumed he was on the other side of my car. I looked up and seen him moving through the windows, his head, um, so I knew I wasn't in a really good position there. And I could see the second car that was involved in the 901 a short distance away, so I wanted to get away from where he was. So I ran over to that car, and uh, put myself behind the, the uh, front of it, the uh engine bay area.

I could see across, I could see his head, um, where my driver's side spotlight was, my driver's side, where I ordered, you know, "Put your hands up. Put your hands up." And he put his hands up. He would stand up. He would duck back down. He put his hands down. This went on for, it seemed like a few minutes, but it was probably only, you know, ten, fifteen seconds.

He put his hands up, he walked out. Kept on, "Come towards the sound of my voice. Walk towards me. Walk towards me. Put your hands up, walk towards me." He walked, uh, probably half-way between where I was and my patrol car was, walked back toward my car, and went back to where he was on the driver's side. Um, and that time units started to show up, and he, at that, then he walked back out about half-way between myself and the patrol car, and he went prone on the ground and we handcuffed him. That was pretty much what happened.

DET. JOHNSON:

Okay, so you were, about what time did uh, were you assigned the call, or did you put yourself on the call when it came out?

OFC. SURJAN:

Uh, I originally wasn't assigned to it. I heard it come out, and I knew it was in my beat. So I cleared off the stop and sent dispatch a message, I said, "Put me on the 901" as I started driving down that way.

DET. JOHNSON:

Just for, what I'd like you to do is don't use police codes during this, let's get this in plain words. So the 901 call you are referring to as a non-injury collision? Or a collision with injuries?

OFC. SURJAN:

Uh, I think it came out as unknown injuries, a traffic collision with unknown injuries. All the information that was [unintelligible] was there was two cars involved. There's people, um, either fleeing the scene or at the scene, a group of people, um, and vehicles were involved, and mention of the gun. I mean, there was a lot of text on the call. I didn't get to read through it all as I was driving there. The only one remark that I that I distinctly put it, two remarks I distinctly remember were that cars were involved, and as we were pulling up to, um, update came that there was, um, somebody was in the car with a shotgun

DET. JOHNSON:

How long after you left the traffic stop with Officer Kiser did the first update about a gun come in?

OFC. SURJAN:

Um, I don't know, remember exactly. We were almost onscene when we read the, uh, when I read the, uh, the update about the shotgun. I mean it was within five seconds before I pulled up to the scene. But I don't recall it, I don't know for sure. It was quick.

DET. JOHNSON:

Did the dispatcher give verbal notification of that?

OFC. SURJAN:

Uh, yeah. I believe she, um, she broadcasted that there was a subject in the car with a gun or a shotgun, and we were pulling that up and trying to read it as we were driving there. Um, and that was right before we actually came up to the scene.

DET. JOHNSON:

When you broke off the traffic stop and went enroute, did you go code 3 right away?

OFC. SURJAN:

No. Um, I was initially driving there and kind of reading through it, and then, based on, you know, the car engulfed, there was mention of, uh, there's a remark on the call of a gun, and hearing shots fired, hearing pops like there were shots fired, I believe that was one of the remarks on the call, I decided to go code 3, and I think I, somewhere midway on Northgate between San Juan and West El Camino.

DET. JOHNSON:

So as you are approaching the scene, what's the first thing that you notice?

OFC. SURJAN:

Uh, I was about, like I said, maybe two blocks, or a block and a half just east of where the scene actually was, and I remember seeing a Corvette, I don't remember what color it was, I just remember it was a Corvette on my left, parked on the side of the road, and a truck either pulling in or backing out of a driveway on the right side. So I started to slow down, thinking that maybe they were involved, or they were witnesses, or their, and I remember using my spot, looking around, and couldn't see anything. The truck looked like it parked. The Corvette drove off. Drove forward, and that's when we say the collision in the middle of the road.

DET. JOHNSON:

When you first saw the collided cars, did you see any people around that may have been associated with the cars?

OFC. SURJAN:

No. There wasn't anyone around.

DET. JOHNSON:

Did you see any witnesses standing around anywhere?

OFC. SURJAN:

No. At first, the first person I saw was when I got out, and I heard someone yell, "Be careful, he has a rifle." And I looked behind to my left, and on the corner there was a house with a big yard, and they were standing on the yard.

DET. JOHNSON:

Was that a male or a female person?

Uh, the voice was male, but I don't know. I think there was two or three of them, and I don't know if they were all male, or male and female. I really didn't get a good look.

DET. JOHNSON:

So you saw that there was more than one person standing over there in that yard?

OFC. SURJAN:

I'm pretty sure there was at least two. I'm pretty sure there was at least two standing on the yard.

DET. JOHNSON:

Did um, the person that gave you that warning, did he tell you where that person was?

OFC. SURJAN:

Yeah. I even asked, "Who has it?" And then I'm pretty sure I yelled, "Who has the rifle?" And he says, "Right there in that car." And I said, "What car?" He says, "The rifle, and right in front of you." And I remember thinking that was a little weird because it looked like both cars were abandoned, and that's when I drew my handgun.

DET. JOHNSON:

When, how soon after that did you, did you first notice anybody associated with the collision at the scene?

OFC. SURJAN:

Uh, it was, it was quick. It was a second or two. As soon as he said that, and I looked back at the car holding my handgun, the door opened, and that's when he started to get out.

DET. JOHNSON:

Which door opened?

OFC. SURJAN:

Driver door.

DET. JOHNSON:

On which car?

OFC. SURJAN:

The, uh, I think it was a Toyota Corolla. It was the one right in front of, I think it was a black Toyota Corolla.

DET. JOHNSON:

As your car is facing the collision scene, and if I were to put myself into the position you were standing at the driver's door in the "V," there's a car on the left and a car on the right. Which car are you referring to?

OFC. SURJAN:

On the left.

DET. JOHNSON:

So the car on the left. And it was the driver's door that was opening?

OFC. SURJAN:

Yes.

DET. JOHNSON:

What happened right then as the door is opening?

OFC. SURJAN:

Uh, the door opened, and I immediately saw the barrel, and I could see the barrel and the stock of the rifle. It was like a light wood stock. I could see that coming out first. And then he started getting out of the car.

DET. JOHNSON:

As he's getting out of the car, which way is the rifle pointed?

OFC. SURJAN:

Um, honestly, it happened so quick, I only remember I think he was holding with one hand, or he was holding it with two hands. The barrel was pointed up and it was at least at chest level. He wasn't holding it down. He wasn't pointing the barrel of the gun. It was up in this, you know, pointed up. I don't remember how exactly he was holding it.

DET. JOHNSON:

Did he, before you issued any commands to him, did you, well, strike that. At what point did you first issue a command to him?

OFC. SURJAN:

As soon as he started getting out of the car, I was saying, "Drop the gun. Drop the gun."

DET. JOHNSON:

Did he respond to those commands in any way?

OFC. SURJAN:

No.

DET. JOHNSON:

What did he look like?

OFC. SURJAN:

Uh, from what, from my view, all I remember is, is he was black. I don't remember, I can't remember what he was wearing. Um, it happened pretty quick. From the time that he got out of the car to the time that I lost sight of him, from when, after I fired the shots and got behind my car, it was real quick, and I didn't get a good look at his clothing or anything like that. I'm sure he was black and I remember what the gun looked like.

DET. JOHNSON:

So the whole time you're standing in the "V" between the door frame and your open car door, on the driver's side...

OFC. SURJAN:

Mmm hmm.

DET. JOHNSON:

...and you issued that command to him, "Drop the gun. Drop the gun," what does he do right after that?

OFC. SURJAN:

Uh, he didn't even, there was no pause. He immediately got out, turned towards me, and started to approach and advance towards me. Um, he was quick. I don't know if he was running or if he was walking. All I remember at that point is backing up, um, knowing that he's approaching me, and what I wanted, I didn't want to be standing there in the open if he had a rifle. I did not want to be, you know, exposed. So I wanted to get behind my car so I had some more cover, and he continues toward me. I continue to say, "Drop the gun, drop the gun." And at that point, that's when I realized that, you know, he wasn't going to stop coming towards me.

DET. JOHNSON:

And every time you gave the command for him to stop or drop the gun, at any time that he's approaching you did you see any response in him?

OFC. SURJAN:

No. Never. It was immediate. As soon as he got out, he was coming towards me. There was no delay. There was no pause. That was when, when he first opened the door and I saw the rifle, I expected him to put it down, or just drop it. But, he didn't. He just got out, and came toward me. I'm so used to, you know, we tell the suspects that are, you know, it's the police and they drop the gun and give up. He didn't. That really surprised me because he didn't do that. He just came right out and started advancing towards me. And uh, that, you know, and at, that guy is still coming towards me, I'm yelling at him and he wasn't stopping. So there was no response. It was just immediate, right towards me.

DET. JOHNSON:

So as you got towards, you say you backed up towards the back of your patrol car, how close, by the time you got to the back of your car, how far had he advanced from his car towards you?

OFC. SURJAN:

He was, uh, I want, he was close to the front bumper of my car at that point. Um, it's hard for me to tell if there was, exactly where he was, but he was close. Because by the time that I got to the back of my trunk and I fired the shots, he had, and I got, I ducked down behind my car, he was on the other side, uh, near the front, um, driver's side wheels. So he, he was close. It wasn't like he was back at, uh, his driver's door. He had advanced almost up to my car, or he was at the, at least the bumper, if not very close to it.

DET. JOHNSON:

How was he carrying the rifle as he's approaching?

OFC. SURJAN:

Honestly, I, I can't recall. It happened so quick. Um, like I said, I don't remember because he had both hands, or one hand, I just remembered the barrel it was up when he got out and started coming towards me.

DET. JOHNSON:

Do you remember if the position of the barrel, the way he was carrying the rifle, changed at any time as you're retreating to the back of the patrol car?

OFC. SURJAN:

I don't remember any difference and if it ever changed.

DET. JOHNSON:

At that point, from the time you arrived to the time you retreated and took cover behind the, the trunk, did you hear any gunshots that were fired by him or anyone else?

OFC. SURJAN:

No. The only gunshot I heard was when we were initially, uh, arriving onscene. I heard a "pop," and uh, I wasn't, and that was when I was about a block-and-a-half away. But, uh, never heard one from him when I arrived onscene or during that time.

DET. JOHNSON:

Okay, so we'll back up a little bit so that you are approaching a block away, still driving towards, and you heard a "pop." Did you have your patrol car windows were up or down?

OFC. SURJAN:

They were down. There was a time that I saw the Corvette on the left, and I saw the uh, the truck around that time, I heard a "pop." And at first, I thought oh, if the car is on fire, it's probably the tires exploding, or the glass shattering. Um, but they were [unintelligible] obviously didn't see to that. The car's weren't on fire.

DET. JOHNSON:

Did you have both windows down? Or just your driver's side window?

OFC. SURJAN:

Uh, I don't know. I know my driver's was down. But I don't know if my passenger was down.

Okay, now fast forward back to you are now taking cover behind the trunk lid. And he has moved, he has approached right about to the front of the patrol car and has moved to the front driver's side wheel area. What happens next?

OFC. SURJAN:

Uh, that's when, uh, I realized that he's not going to stop coming towards me. I fired twice, two rounds. Um, as soon as a fired, I started ducking down behind my trunk, and I got behind the passenger side, rear wheel area to try to take cover from him if he's going to, you know, shoot at me.

DET. JOHNSON:

When you fired, did you fire the, both shots in rapid succession, like a double-tap, or did you take two single shots?

OFC. SURJAN:

Uh, I knew it was quick. Um, I, "pop-pop," like at that speed.

DET. JOHNSON:

Where exactly were you behind the patrol car when you fired the shots?

OFC. SURJAN:

Uh, pretty much almost directly dead-center between the, uh, in the trunk. Because I remember I could see him, the lights were going, and I could just see his, his silhouette, his, you know, his body moving towards me, and just to the right of his body where the lights were going off. So, I went, you know, try to not expose much of myself.

DET. JOHNSON:

From that position, and you saw his silhouette, you were able to see his silhouette without any obstruction? Or were you looking through the patrol car windows?

OFC. SURJAN:

No it was unobstructed. Yeah. I was standing and he was directly in front of me, coming towards me. So, and then the lights were right here going off. So I could see him. I wasn't looking through the rear window at that point.

DET. JOHNSON:

So you, you're standing up, directly behind the trunk, about midway at the trunk, and are you able to see him? Is he already on the driver's side? He was at the front wheel?

OFC. SURJAN:

Uh, yeah. He's already up toward, probably about the bumper area of the car, up towards the front of the car, at that point. Because I had retreated back. As soon as he started approaching me, that's when I started retreating back, giving him commands. I backed up to the trunk area and I could still see him approaching on the driver's side. And I was looking up and over my trunk, and just to the left of the roof of the car and the lights and everything. I could see him. I wasn't looking through the windows at him, and there was nothing obstructing my view of him.

Did the, did flashing of the overhead lights cause any kind of visual obstruction?

OFC. SURJAN:

Uh, they were bright, and it definitely um, you know, made it a little tougher to see him, but, like I said, by the time I backed up, it happened so quick that it wasn't uh, by the time it, by the time it happened it didn't seem to affect anything, or didn't seem to uh, really been, I mean it was blinding, but by the time that I had retreated back I only would have been behind the car for, you know, a second, if that.

DET. JOHNSON:

So did, but it was, it wasn't so bright that couldn't see his?

OFC. SURJAN:

No, I could, I could see him. Yes, I could see him. It wasn't blinding to where I couldn't see anything.

DET. JOHNSON:

Did it ever cause you to lose sight of him?

OFC. SURJAN:

No. No.

DET. JOHNSON:

So at that point, you realized he wasn't going to stop.

OFC. SURJAN:

Right.

DET. JOHNSON:

And, what were you thinking at that point? What was, what did you perceive his intent as?

OFC. SURJAN:

I thought he was going to kill me. On, he was, I mean, he was coming straight at me with this rifle. I told him to stop. He knew I was a policeman. He couldn't have known that I wasn't. The lights were going, and I thought for sure that he was going to start shooting. Um, I was, uh, there's that video that they show in the academy where the officer uh, is on a traffic stop and the guy comes out with a rifle, and that's exactly what it was, basically what I pictured. And I thought for sure he was going to start shooting. Um, he was, uh, I thought for sure that it was, that what he was come at me for, that he was going to try to kill me. I don't understand why else he would approach, you know, towards me, holding a rifle, and, it was, there was no pause. He just came straight at me, I thought that's what he was trying to do.

Did he say anything to you?

OFC. SURJAN:

The only thing he said, and this was after, towards the end, he yelled something about, "They were trying to shoot me." And that's the only thing I can remember him saying. And this is after I had already retreated behind one of the cars involved in the collision, and he was putting up his hands and, and surrendering. That's the only remark I remember him making.

DET. JOHNSON:

As he's, he's approaching you and you are thinking the worst, that he's going to try to shoot, shoot to kill you, when you fired the shots, what was your body position the best you remember?

OFC. SURJAN:

Uh, I'm pretty sure I started standing, and I started to kneel down and duck behind the bumper, and it was kind of like one movement, you know? It happened so quick, from the time he started approaching, to the time I started backing up and, and uh, got behind, um, the passenger side of the wheel, there was no pause. It was backing up, "Drop the gun, drop the gun", bang-bang, and I was down behind the car. There was never a pause in any of it. Um, I was trying to get, put my car between me and him, and, because I knew if he had a rifle, there's not much, you know, it's not, the body armor is not going to protect me. I had to get behind my car. So that was my first thought, to try to get, so it was just one movement from backing up, firing, and I was, until I was kneeling down behind the uh, rear passenger tire.

DET. JOHNSON:

When you fired the shots, do you remember at what point during that process that the shots actually were discharged?

OFC. SURJAN:

There was, as I was standing, I started to go, go down. Um, I mean, it was, it was very quick, but it was, the first one, I was standing, and at that point I started, kneel down and fired again, and then that's when I went behind the car.

DET. JOHNSON:

As all this is going and you fired the shots, do you recall anything unusual about your perception that maybe you've never experienced before? Was there anything unusual about the situation that, that you would think now, looking back at, would be odd?

OFC. SURJAN:

It just happened very fast, a lot quicker than I ever imagined it would happen. Um, it felt like there wasn't a lot of time to think about it. It just kind of [unintelligible] "Oh my God, he's coming at me to kill me." And it just, it really didn't, it happened very quickly. I remember that the shots it didn't even, they didn't sound loud at all. They were very, they seemed very, uh, quiet, you know? From shooting and shooting without ear protection, it's always been very loud. When this happened it didn't sound like anything. It sounded just like two small little pops, like a cap gun. And, and I'm sure that's [unintelligible] or something.

DET. JOHNSON:

When you fired the shots, did you notice any reaction in the suspect?

OFC. SURJAN:

No, because as soon as I fired the second shot, I was already down and I lost sight of him. Um, I never saw him fell. I never saw if he, uh, I never saw anything, because as I fired one shot at him, I could see him walking, I fired at him once. I started to duck down, fired again. And by the time I got done firing the second round, I was already down behind my, my, uh, down on the ground behind, uh, the car. And I completely lost sight of him. So I had no idea, as I was on the passenger side, I didn't know if he was hit, or if he was still, uh, armed or what he was planning on doing. So, uh, it happened real quick. It was the shots, and then he was out of my vision.

DET. JOHNSON:

So when you fired the shots, did have eye contact with him as you fired both of the shots?

OFC. SURJAN:

Yeah, he was facing towards me. I could see him, and after I fired both, and as I was dropping down, as soon as a fired the second one, I dropped down out of, he was out of my view.

DET. JOHNSON:

Did he, do you recall any movement by him, such as pointing his rifle at you to return fire?

OFC. SURJAN:

I don't remember. I couldn't see that good. I don't recall if he brought it up to his shoulder or pointed it at me. I don't remember anything like that.

DET. JOHNSON:

I just want to make sure I have this clear. And so, when you're, you're backing up to take cover behind the, the trunk. And he's coming over on your passenger side?

OFC. SURJAN:

The driver's side.

DET. JOHNSON:

I'm sorry, the driver's side. And you come up on target, and did you fire both the shots as you are going down and ducking? Or did you fire a shot and duck, and then come back up and fire the second shot?

OFC. SURJAN:

No. I fired as I was ducking. So I fired once, and as I fired one, I started to move down as I fired the second one. And then I was, then I finished, like basically the movement. I was down behind my, I didn't shoot once, duck down, and then stand up again to shoot. It was just one movement as I was ducking down, that's when I fired both shots.

DET. JOHNSON:

After you fired the shots, did you stand up? Or take a peek? Raise your head up to take a peek to see where he was?

OFC. SURJAN:

Yeah. I, uh, I remember looking up and I could see movement on the driver's side, through the driver's side windows, which I, um, I see his head moving around. So at that point, he's still moving. I didn't want to stay in that position because I didn't know if he was going to pop in the corner and try to take a shot at me, or if, what he was going to do. So I knew that I had to get out of that situation. I didn't want to, and that's when I, uh, when I cover, I could really see that I was close with this, the car that was involved in the collision that was to my right. So I sprinted to that car and took cover behind the engine area.

DET. JOHNSON:

So on which side of, of that car, which side of the engine? The driver's side or passenger side?

OFC. SURJAN:

Uh, the driver's side. It was facing towards me. So, yeah, I ran out to the driver's side.

DET. JOHNSON:

I can't remember exactly how that position of the car was, but if I interpret what you are saying correctly, you put that car between you and your car?

OFC. SURJAN:

That's correct. Yeah. So at this point, I was behind the car involved in the collision. I could see him on the driver's side of my car, and his head was towards where the spotlight is, engine area. I could see him moving around in that area.

DET. JOHNSON:

So he's still on the driver's side of your car?

OFC. SURJAN:

That's correct.

DET. JOHNSON:

Could you tell what he was doing as he was moving around?

OFC. SURJAN:

Uh, no. I couldn't see anything. All I could see was basically his head, uh, moving around. I couldn't see his body. Uh, I started, that's when I started issuing commands, you know, "Show your hands. Show your hands." And that's when he put up his hands. And I think that's, around that time he said, "There are trying to shoot me." So I kind of had the feeling at that point he was surrendering. Uh, and he had his hands up for the most part, most of the time. And he would stand up and he was acting very confused and disoriented. He was, like he didn't know what was going on.

DET. JOHNSON:

Was he responding to your commands?

OFC. SURJAN:

Uh, he was keeping his hands up. He would stand up, and then he would kneel back down. I continued to say, "Walk toward my voice," and he wouldn't do it. He just kind of stood there. And then, eventually, walked out in the area that was between where I was and my patrol car was. And then, "Get on the ground. Get on the ground." And he got on the ground. And he walked back towards where the, my patrol car was. Back to where he was behind my, uh, by my driver's side. So where he is right at that time, and he finally put his hands up and walked back around, and he laid down in a prone position, and handcuffed him.

DET. JOHNSON:

So when you took cover behind the damaged car and made the first command to him to show his hands, and, did he respond immediately?

OFC. SURJAN:

Uh, I don't know if it was immediate, but it was after maybe the second or third command. He was, it was, it wasn't much time. He, as soon as I got behind there and told him to show his hands, you know, a couple seconds and he raised his hands up.

DET. JOHNSON:

Where was he exactly that first time he raised his hands.

OFC. SURJAN:

Uh, he was, um, driver's side. Probably right where the door meets the, uh, front fender. Right where the spotlight is. Maybe just like a little forward where the spotlight was. So his head was visible, and, and right to the, you know, to my left the windshield and spotlight, so he was like, right in that little, that little "V" of where the fender and door meet.

DET. JOHNSON:

So he put both of his hands up. Could you see where he, did he put rifle anywhere where you could see it?

OFC. SURJAN:

I didn't see where he put it. No.

DET. JOHNSON:

It was at that point that he told you "they" were shooting at him?

OFC. SURJAN:

Uh, I remember saying, you know, "Keep your hands up. Walk towards my voice." Because he was, with all the lights and everything going on, he was, he, he looked very disoriented. And he kept like, looking around like he didn't know what was going on. So I just said, "Walk towards my voice. Walk towards my voice. Come towards me." And, uh, and those were the commands that I was giving him.

DET. JOHNSON:

Did he immediately comply with those commands?

OFC. SURJAN:

No. I gave him, uh, I gave him the command, it felt a lot longer than I'm sure it was, but I kept telling him, you know, "Stand up. Come towards my voice." Because I wanted to get him away where I could see him, and away if there was, the weapon over there. So I kept telling him to "Stand up." And at this point, I was still by myself, "Stand up and walk towards me." Uh, he did it once, walked out, then didn't get down, and then walked right back to, uh, the other side of my car. At that time more units started to show up, and continued to give the commands, and that's when he finally walked over and laid down where we told him to.

DET. JOHNSON:

When he, the first time he put his hands up, did he, did he only come out and start walking when the units were arriving? Or did he start to before they arrived?

The arriving units close to, I remember some units responding, but I told them to stop down the street because I didn't want them, um, driving up to where he was. And I remember seeing units, you know, probably 50, 75 yards, um, behind me. But I don't know if they were actually out there at that point or if this was before. I don't, I don't remember exactly. Um, I didn't, I don't know. He said, you know, I talked to him long enough for obvious reasons. He said that he was in the car when he heard the shots, and he ended up running across the street and taking cover behind a tree. I remember at some point seeing him run. I don't remember exactly when that was. Um, I mean, I remember seeing him run to the north side of West El Camino, and I just saw a blur, and it was him. But I don't remember at what point in the incident that that happened.

DET. JOHNSON:

Now on the suspect's rifle, how did it get into the trunk of your car?

OFC. SURJAN:

I think Officer Masee put it there. She said that she secured it in the trunk of my car. I don't know if she was the one that placed it there or if someone else did. She's the one who told me it was there. I never touched it. I don't know who did.

DET. JOHNSON:

But she told you it was secured in your car?

OFC. SURJAN:

Yes.

DET. JOHNSON:

Did she tell you that she's the one who put it there?

OFC. SURJAN:

I don't remember her saying that. She just said it, she, it was, that's where it was.

DET. JOHNSON:

She didn't tell you who put it there at all?

OFC. SURJAN:

No.

DET. JOHNSON:

The ICC, you said that you started to go code-3 at some point about mid-way on Northgate, mid-way between San Juan and Northgate. Is that correct?

OFC. SURJAN:

Yup.

DET. JOHNSON:

How long did you remain code-3?

OFC. SURJAN:

Uh, I remained pretty much, uh, I watched it, we got up to, right where I saw the Corvette and the truck backing into the driveway, I slowed down at that point. I still had lights on, no siren, and we slowed down, and I remember taking my spotlight, and I was looking back and forth across the street, I think I looked down like Northview, or one of the streets to the south. I don't know which one it was, looking for this collision, and we continued forward. We were only going maybe, 20, 25 miles per hour. We were kind of going slow looking for it. I noticed it was right in front of me at that time. I didn't see anyone around. It just looked like a collision. I'm thinking, "Okay, it's a hit and run. There's nobody around." That's when I think I probably turned it off. I don't remember hitting it. But I, you know, must have hit the stop button. We were just on a typical 901 scene.

DET. JOHNSON:

So when you, what point did you turn the siren off? Was it right at the Corvette?

OFC. SURJAN:

Yeah. I slowed down to look for the scene, and that's when I flipped the siren off. I'm pretty sure it was around that point, I think I did.

DET. JOHNSON:

Which control did you use to flip the siren off? Did you use the siren control button? Or did you use the, I guess it's the slider? The Federal slider?

OFC. SURJAN:

Uh, the little red switch. I had the lights, I had it all the way to the right. And then the siren, there's a little up-and-down switch right next to it, and I just used that to turn it on, and I clicked it down to turn it off.

DET. JOHNSON:

Was the light activator switch in the full code-3 position with the siren button off?

OFC. SURJAN:

Yes. The entire time, all lights were on. I just had the siren off when we showed up.

DET. JOHNSON:

When I got to the scene, a long time after, but my recollection was that your car only had the rear flashers on. At what point did the position of the light switch change?

OFC. SURJAN:

I don't know. I don't know if someone flipped them off, because, I mean, they were going and we were dealing with the scene, and they are pretty blinding. But, I know for a fact that they were fully on until the time we took him into custody. But I don't know at what point they got turned down to just the rear lights.

DET. JOHNSON:

So you didn't switch it to just the rear lights?

No. I don't think so.

DET. JOHNSON:

And you don't recall whether or not that you switched the ICC camera off?

OFC. SURJAN:

I assume I did. I don't remember doing it, but, I just, you know, showing up to a 901 scene and parked, and there's no one around, so I just, I probably just clicked it off. I don't remember doing it, I mean, with everything else that happened, I don't distinctly remember that, doing that. I just don't [unintelligible] like I hit it off when we showed up.

DET. JOHNSON:

When you went code-3, do you remember the ICC camera activating?

OFC. SURJAN:

It activated. Yeah.

DET. JOHNSON:

Okay, I think we'll, let me wheel the tube in, and we are going to take all of your magazines and your weapon. Have you clear your weapon so, the way I'd just like you unload, I'm going to get you some envelopes because we are going to bag them up and process them over at the crime lab and what not. OFC. SURJAN:

Yes.

DET. JOHNSON:

It's a Streamlight TLR. I saw that you had one in the chamber. Okay, so that's a 12-round capacity magazine, and 10 rounds in the magazine. This is the magazine that was from your gun. Do you keep any other backup magazines.

Document: 01 VICTIM STATEMENT

Author: 636 - MCCOY, DONALD A 0378 ( )

Subject: (VICTIM #3) ( )

Related date/time: Apr-23-2012 (Mon.) 1322

I contacted ( ) at the Hall of Justice inside interview room #1. ( ) had agreed to come to the Hall of Justice for an interview. She was not considered a suspect. ( ) is involved in a dating relationship with Russell Grant. During the interview ( ) appeared concerned her statement would be used against Russell Grant. It was my impression she was downplaying the significance of what had occurred to keep from implicating Russell Grant. She told me the following in summary. It should be noted the interview was recorded and is available upon request.

I live at ( ) with my son, ( ). We have lived at the apartment for the last two months.

I met Russell about 7 months ago on the bus. I know him as Russell Steven Grant. We dated off and on. Russell does not live with us. He spends the night a couple times a week. When we are arguing, it's always over the same things. Russell is a liar, cheater, and a dope fiend.

(At this point in the interview, ( ) became concerned I was going to use what she said against Russell Grant. )

This occurred today because Russell was high (under the influence). He was not trying to hurt me. He was thinking someone was after him. Russell uses crystal (street term for amphetamines). I knew he was high when I saw him because he was sweating and paranoid. Russell gets paranoid and thinks people are after him or I am trying to set him up. Tonight, Russell told me he was paranoid and people were coming.

This is the second time Russell has harmed himself. The first time was at my old apartment on ( ) ( ) / SSD Report #11-241594). That time, Russell jumped in my window and held a knife to me. He went to jail over it. This was in November. He was using and paranoid. Russell did not attack me. He thought we locked him out. He came in the window. We were in the kitchen and he got a knife. I was trying to calm him down.

Russell has been to jail 3 times in the last 7 months for being under the influence.

I had never seen Russell with a gun before today. It was a long gun or rifle. The rifle was wood or brown color. I had never seen the rifle before today.

I talked with Russell on the phone about an hour or two before he came over. He seemed normal at that time. Everything was okay between us. Russell was coming over to hang out.

I was in bed but expecting him when I heard him knocking at my front door. It was about 2am. I opened the front door and immediately knew. Russell was sweating and holding a gun in his hand. The gun was pointed straight down. He was not trying to hide it. I do not remember Russell saying anything. I asked him, "What the hell are you doing?"

I was going to try and calm Russell down. I figured if I shut the door, he would shoot it open or kick it in. I let Russell in. I can normally calm him down. We went to my bedroom (master bedroom). Russell was sitting on the bed near the head board. He was pointing the rifle towards the master bathroom. I was sitting on the bed at the foot of the bed. I could not see if he had his finger on the trigger or not.

I was talking to Russell. He kept telling me, "Baby come here" and "I love you." I told him to put the gun down so we could talk. I told Russell I loved him and no one was after him. I told Russell it was just him and I at the apartment. I was trying to calm him down. It seemed to work for a minute. He appeared to be listening to me. I argued with Russell a little bit. I yelled at him about bringing the rifle to my apartment.

Russell took my cell phone while I was trying to talk to him. We were sitting on the bed. I told Russell I was going to call 911.

(At this point in the interview, [REDACTED] told me she shouldn't tell me this because I was going to use it against Russell Grant.)

I was holding my cell phone in my hand. I put the phone down on the bed between Russell and me. I did not call 911. It was just a threat. All Russell said was, "I love you." He picked up my cell phone and put it in his pocket.

I was angry because Russell was high again. I knew yelling at him would make things worse.

Russell was looking around a lot. He turned down the TV so he could hear what was going on. He was acting paranoid.

Russell was at the apartment between 30-45 minutes before the gunshot.

Russell would not put the gun down. I began to think he might shoot or kill me. I told Russell that I could not help him. I told Russell I was leaving with my son and he could stay there. I told him he could kill himself if he wanted.

I got up to leave my bedroom. I got to my bedroom door when I heard the gunshot. I told Russell I was done and left the bedroom to get my son. I think Russell shot the rifle on accident. He would not hurt me. Russell was shocked after he fired the gun. I heard him say, "Fuck". He was not trying to hurt me. He was high and paranoid.

I went to my son's bedroom and knocked on his door. My son did not say anything about hearing the gunshot. He was sleeping. My son did not get dressed. I told him our lives were in danger and we had to leave. I got my son and we fled the apartment.

I was going to get into my car but Russell followed us out of the apartment. I knew it was over by then. Russell was still holding the rifle. I thought about getting into my car to get myself and my son out of there. My son and I ended up on the parking lot area between the office and the front exit.

I was "fussing" and "tussling" with Russell over my keys. Russell was holding the gun straight up while we were "tussling". Russell was trying to take the keys out of my hand. I did not want him to drive my car. Russell was high and paranoid. I did not want him to run into someone and kill himself. Russell did not threaten me. My son told me to give Russell the keys. I gave my keys to Russell. Russell got into my car. He backed out of the parking stall and hit a curb and a small black fence. Russell drove out of the complex and made a right turn on Stonecreek Dr. I believe he turned left onto West El Camino Ave because that is where my car ended up.

(At this point in the interview, I showed [REDACTED] an aerial photograph of her apartment complex. [REDACTED] described which parking stay her car was parked in. She also described the area of the apartment complex that Russell Grant hit with her car.)

When we were outside, we were arguing over my keys. I was telling Russell to leave and he was going to go to jail. I guess he thought the easiest way to leave was to take my car.

(At this point in the interview, I showed [REDACTED] a single photograph of Russell Grant dated 03/27/12. [REDACTED] has seen Russel Grant on several occasions over the past 7 months and is involved in an intimate relationship with Russell Grant. [REDACTED] identified Russell Grant as the Russell she was referring to.)

Russell never pointed the rifle at me. Russell did not make any threats towards me. I was concerned the entire time he was at my apartment Russel might hurt me.

Russell had my red colored Android phone in a black case. He had my keys which are on a key ring which has a pink converse shoe on it.

I would also like to get my wallet out of the car and my backpack out of the car.

Russell has about $200.00 on him which is both of ours. I'd like it back if possible.

The Toyota Camry is mine. It is in my name.

No one called the police. I did not call the police. I did not ask her to call 911. I was surprised no of the neighbors called 911. My neighbor took me to the accident scene and I told the officer's the Toyota Camry was my car.

On 4/21/12, at approximately 0650 hours, I spoke with [REDACTED] inside his apartment at [REDACTED] Alan Shepard Street, apartment [REDACTED]. I explained that we were there to do a search. The conversation was audio recorded. [REDACTED] told me the following, in summary:

He ain't here. He's in jail. I thought he was in jail. Somebody called me last night and said he was incarcerated. That's all I know.

I have something from the doctor (showed me medicinal marijuana paperwork). I don't have no guns, nothing like that. I stay right here. He comes here and lays in there on the floor (south bedroom). That's all I know.

Nobody's on parole or probation here. He doesn't use this house as his address anymore. Do what you want to do. Go ahead. There ain't nothing to look at. There's some boxes and clothes.

I just woke up. [REDACTED]. I'm not well.

He called me last night. Just like I told him, do not come by here because I'll call the police on your ass.

I'm through with him. I was a single parent. I raised him. I'm through. He went to good schools. He had everything I could give him. I worked for the State. I retired. The hell with him. Do what you want to do.

Leave me alone. There ain't nothing in those cabinets because I just moved here in May. I got [REDACTED] in May 11 so I was still [REDACTED] and didn't get a chance to move any of this stuff around. Then when I [REDACTED] [REDACTED]t, I was going back and forth to San Francisco so I've been a busy person. I haven't had time to do a damn thing.

You guys are crawling up the wrong tree. There's no guns, no ammunition, no other drugs. I don't drink. I don't do anything other than that (marijuana) for the pain.

He didn't come by last night. He's on fucking drugs and I don't like it. Not weed. I don't know what and I don't want to know all I know is I can tell. I've raised him. What the fuck are you guys doing in my closet. There ain't nothing in there.

There's some shit my son put up there in the cabinets (kitchen- no contraband found).

The heater closet is kept locked by policy so that old people won't burn themselves. I don't have a key. I just woke up. I just had went to sleep.

I don't know where my son stays. He called me last night and I don't know where he's at or what he's doing. I don't give a damn. I don't know what he said. I'm through with him. I'm tired of that boy.

He left no drugs and he left no weapons. I know when he bought that gun. He came and he showed it to me, some rifle and shit and I'm wondering what in the hell you're buying this shit for. I don't know, a couple weeks ago. I don't keep track of that. You asked me a thing about him and I don't want to be bothered.

I've met [REDACTED]

There's no guns. There's no weapons. I've never been arrested for guns in my life. I've never been arrested for drugs in my life.

Someone called me about 2 or 3 o'clock in the morning. That's why I've been talking about going back to sleep.

That's all his paperwork (bags in south bedroom). I packed it up to move it out.

His mom called me. This is my phone. It's some woman that I don't want to be bothered with. Her name is [REDACTED]. I took her number out of my damn phone because I don't want to see her. Excuse me, I forgot to take it out (shows me [REDACTED]).

I already know what he was into last night and I'm fortunate that I don't have to hear his mother sobbing and they're burying his ass.

I don't know nothing about the rifle. I've been in the Marine Corps. I know how to shoot weapons. I'm an expert. I don't know what it was. I had no interest in it. You guys have the gun so what are you asking me for.

I don't know where he got the gun from. I don't know anything about him. All I know is he's my son and he's on drugs. I'm not bothering with him. I don't want none of it. I'm tired. I'm a single parent. I raised him. He turned out to be shit.

There's nothing here. ([REDACTED] argued about us opening a box that was by the front door that was unopened and that he was sending back). That's never been opened.

You can have 12 small marijuana plants. He'll never use my address again because this shit will never happen again because I end up going through this shit.

A long prison term is his problem. I went to the military. I went to school. I worked for the State for a couple years.

Since 02' I've had a license for medicinal marijuana.

I had a regular life. They had a regular life too and we lived in Antelope. Sometimes in life people want to gravitate to certain things and you can't stop them.

My damn son just went looking for immediate gratifications to the world and is sacrificing to acquire what he wants.

When I was in the Marine Corps, I did have a .32 automatic Lama with a break-away holster to shoot to kill something. That's what my intention was and that's what I was going to do. Anytime I was in Palm Springs or San Bernadino, except for LA because the LA cops are too damn crazy.

Witness Statement: [REDACTED]

On 4-21-12, at approximately 0656 hours, I contacted [REDACTED] in interview room #2 at 5770 Freeport Blvd (SPD Hall of Justice). [REDACTED] agreed to come to SPD Hall of Justice so he could be interviewed regarding what occurred earlier in the morning. The interview was DVD/DVR recorded and a copy of the recording was later booked as evidence. The recording is available for transcription if necessary. [REDACTED] related the following in summary:

I live with my mom in the Stonecreek apartments. My mom's boyfriend is Russell Grant. My mom has been dating him for 6 months. Russell has stayed the night at my apartment in the past and the most recent time was two days ago.

My mom and Russell used to fight a lot, verbally, over all kinds of stuff but it was never physical. Last night Russell was on crystal and that is why things changed. Russell used crystal a few months ago and the Sheriff's department had to use the tazer to take him into custody. We were staying in apartments on [REDACTED] and Russell ran out front and then ran back into the house and had my wife in a corner. I picked up a couple of knives and was trying to get Russell to get off my mom. The police came a couple of minutes after and they had to use the tazer to get Russell off my mom.

Approximately three this morning I was asleep in my room. My room is directly east of the front door and my bedroom window looks out towards the front of the apartments. I awoke to the sound of Russell and my mom arguing at the front door. I remember hearing Russell repeat the same thing over and over again. Russell kept saying, "They're coming, they're coming" and he was telling my mom to put the dead bolt lock on the front door so the people who were chasing him couldn't get in the house. Russell was inside arguing with my mom for like two minutes. I recognized my mom was arguing with her boyfriend Russell because I recognized his voice.

After I heard my mom and Russell arguing at the front door I heard the sound of footsteps run to the my mom's bedroom. My mom came to my door and told me we had to leave. My mom said, "Russell has a gun and he is high" so we had to leave. I could tell my mom was scared for her life. Once my mom woke me up we ran out of the front door. Once we were out of the house I heard Russell fire one shot inside the apartment. I don't know why Russell shot but he fired one shot in the house but I think it could have been because he was coming to get us or it was an accident or he just wanted to shoot.

I didn't see Russell with the rifle until we were outside. I remember seeing Russell running after us and he was carrying the rifle. Russell came up to my mom, pointing the rifle at her, and told her to give him the keys to the car. My mom was arguing with him because she didn't want to give him the keys. I thought in my mind that you don't argue with a man holding a gun so I told my mom to give him the keys. My mom gave Russell the keys and he got in the car and drove away.

When Russell drove out of the parking lot he backed up and ran into the fence. I guess he was driving really fast to try and get out of the parking lot. After Russell left I heard a traffic accident. The traffic accident was 10-15 seconds after Russell left the parking lot. A little less than a minute after the accident I heard two more gun shots. I remember hearing police sirens and the gun shots were after the police sirens.

The gun Russell was holding looked like a SK rifle to me. I think it was a SK because I have looked at guns and stuff on the internet and the rifle Russell was holding looked like the other SK rifles I had seen on the internet.

I think Russell got the gun from his street connects because he is a streets dude.

About five minutes after Russell left the apartment complex I went back into the apartment and grabbed a kitchen knife so I could protect my mom and I if Russell came back.

I think Russell took my mom's money because when we went back into the apartment and found the bullet hole we couldn't find my mom's money. I think that is all the money we have right now.

Document: 02 WITNESS STATEMENT

Author: 866 - SAARIO, JUSTIN 0460

Subject: (WITNESS #6) [REDACTED]

Related date/time: Apr-21-2012 (Sat.) 701

On 4-21-12, at approximately 0701 hours, I, Det. J. Saario, contacted [REDACTED] at the Sacramento Police Department Central Station (300 Richards Blvd.) and obtained her statement. The entire statement was audio/video recorded and later booked into evidence at SPD Headquarters. For complete transcripts refer to booked CD. During the statement, I used a Google Maps aerial satellite photograph for [REDACTED] to show specific locations for what she observed. I later booked the photograph shown to [REDACTED] into evidence at SPD Headquarters. The following is her statement in summary:

I live at [REDACTED] with my cousin [REDACTED]. Tonight I was at my house and [REDACTED] was there visiting me. Around 1:30 AM, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] showed up from out of town. [REDACTED] was also at the house but she had gone to bed around 12 AM.

[REDACTED] and I had one "Tall One" (32 ounce beer) and three 12 ounce beers each throughout the night from about 9 PM to around 1:30. [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] had one 12 ounce beer while at my house. I did not feel drunk at all when this thing occurred.

[REDACTED], [REDACTED], [REDACTED], and I were in the garage shooting pool. We were just hanging out with the garage door open. It was about 2:30 AM when we heard a bang coming from W. El Camino. Someone said they thought it was a tire blowing out. [REDACTED] said that it was not a tire blowing out but that it was an accident around the corner. [REDACTED], [REDACTED], [REDACTED], and I ran around the corner to W. El Camino / Thelma Ave (Southeast corner).

When we got to the corner, there was a Hispanic guy about 32 years old with a dark complexion. He was about 5'2" tall with longer hair but it was not long like to his shirt collar long. He was wearing black jeans and plaid dark blue sweater vest with several different colors on the front. He was running towards us and was talking in Spanish. [REDACTED] said the guy was saying "There is a guy in the car with a gun and ammunition." I did not see where this guy came from but he continued running southbound on Thelma Ave. I did not know what was going on; all I saw was these two cars in the street that had crashed.

At first I thought the guy that was running (described above) was a driver from one of the cars and trying to flee the scene because he was involved in the accident. I then saw one of my neighbors named [REDACTED] standing on the southwest corner of W. El Camino Ave. I walked over to him and was standing there with [REDACTED]. That is when I heard a gunshot coming from area where the cars were sitting. I ran over to where [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were still standing. I was told that [REDACTED] had tried to make a 911 call but the call would not go through so [REDACTED] had run back to my house to get her cell phone.

While I was standing with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED], there was a car the pulled up on the south side of W. El Camino Ave just west of Thelma Ave. The guy got out and was on his phone. He began to walk up to the accident and we told him there was a guy with a gun in the car. The guy that showed up went back to his vehicle and backed away from the scene down W. El Camino Ave. I do not know where that guy went. I think he pulled down the street and waited.

I saw [REDACTED] on her cell phone standing at the intersection of Greenlea Ave / Thelma Ave. I ran down to where she was standing. As I was running to her I heard two more gunshots coming from the area of the accident. [REDACTED] asked me what vehicle the shots were coming from. I did not know so I ran back to [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. I asked them where the shots were coming from. They said the shots were coming from the rear passenger seat of the sedan, not the Honda.

I ran back to where [REDACTED] was to tell her where the shots were coming from but she had hung up with 911. The police cars were showing up anyway at that time so we went back to the southeast corner of Thelma Ave. and W. El Camino Ave. (pointing to the aerial photograph on Thelma Ave just south of W. El Camino Ave). We ducked down behind some concrete pillars in front of the house on the southeast corner (house faces west toward Thelma Ave with the driveway coming out onto Thelma Ave. also). [REDACTED] and I were behind the pillars directly north of the driveway that comes out onto Thelma Ave. The pillars were really close to each other. I think there was a pedestrian gate right there so that is why the pillars were close to each other. [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were behind pillars closer to W. El Camino Ave.

From where I was hiding I did not have a really good view because of the wrought iron fence and the shrubbery in the front yard blocked my view. I had to occasionally peek my head up to see. I remember seeing police cars parked on W. El Camino Ave right at Thelma Ave. I do not know where the police officers ended up for those cars. I remember seeing police officers across W. El Camino Ave on the front yard of the house at the northwest corner of Dorine Way / W. El Camino Ave. but I do not remember anything specific about what they were doing. A lot was going on really fast and it was very hectic. I peeked up and saw a tall light skinned black guy just south of the crashed cars. He was in the street between the cars and the sidewalk. He had his back to me but I could see he was holding a rifle. I do not know what kind of rifle it was or what color it was. I could see the back (stock) and the barrel and I think it had a strap (sling). The rest was hidden by his body. He was holding it like this ([REDACTED] demonstrated an unorthodox rifle carry position with both hands grasping the firearm over the top of the rifle at both the forend and the stock). I heard the officers yelling "Get out of the car" at least three times. It sounded like they were using the bullhorn (PA System). It looked like to me that the guy was putting the gun down or something like that. I never actually saw him put the rifle down and I never saw the rifle on the ground. The guy just motioned with his arms toward the ground. I do not know what he actually did with the gun. He had his back to us.

[REDACTED] told me to get down because she said "the officers may shoot him". I ducked down behind the pillar. I remember hearing the officers yelling "Put the weapon down". I heard that at least two times. It seemed like a minute went by and I heard three pops immediately followed by a fast "help". The "Help" sounded like it came from the front yard directly to our east. I never looked up to see what was going on. I remember hearing additional commands being given but I do not remember what the officers were saying. There was a lot going on. [REDACTED] was talking to me, there was shooting going on, and it was very hectic. I remember all the commands the officers were giving were coming from the east of where we were.

I never saw the officers taking the guy into custody or handcuffing him.

The entire time I was out there I did not see any of the shots that were fired from anyone. I remember hearing at least five shots prior to the police officers arriving. I did not see which vehicle if any the black guy with the rifle came from or was which car he was in. I do not know where the officer was when the shots were fired at any point. I just remember seeing three officers on the grass north of the accident.

Related date/time: Apr-21-2012 (Sat.) 751

On 4/21/12, at approximately 0751 hours, I called [REDACTED], the mother of suspect Grant, and took her recorded statement. She told me the following in summary:

Junior? What's wrong with my baby?

I didn't know nothing about it, just what my son told me or whoever talked to my son. Some girl called me at 4 o'clock in the morning.

They woke me up sir. I'm so sick. I'm on oxygen. It's about to give me a heart attack. What's really going on with my baby?

My baby has a mental problem. I don't care what nobody say. He needs help.

He didn't talk to me last night. He cussed me the other night and that's something he's never done. I don't know what's going on with him.

What happened is that girl called and I was asleep. My old man brought me the phone as I was half-way asleep. All I know is she told me he was in a high speed chase so I didn't know who to call. I don't know what his daddy's talking about. I'm getting bits and pieces. I started to call the police place and find out if it's true or what because she stopped answering her phone.

His girlfriend [REDACTED] called me.

I don't know why he'd do something. My baby's got a mental problem. Everybody's always said that. He's crazy. He always. One minute he's one way and the next minute he ain't. I don't know. It runs in my family where they were schizophrenic on both sides, my mother's side and my father.

I know he drinks.

He don't have no car. Isn't [REDACTED]'s car a black car? It's that girl's car. I think she said he took her car. That girl called. I was asleep that time of the morning. I'm sick. I take medication and so I'm out. I'm under 800 mg of medicine at night and so when they're calling me I'm not knowing sir.

I last saw my son last week or earlier this week. I don't know. How did he get a damn gun? Sir? I don't know. I never knew him to have no gun.

What all did he supposed to have done? I didn't hear nothing about no damn crashes. I think I heard. I don't know. Shit.

Who did he shoot at? What did he shoot at some people for? Him and that old girl are always fighting between me and you. I don't know what the hell's going on. That's why I really didn't pay no attention. Then she didn't answer no phone so my old man said maybe she's bull coming or whatever.

She didn't tell me about him shooting a gun off. I didn't find out until the police told my son or somebody.

I got so scared. I didn't want you all to kill my baby, the police. When I found out he had a gun. That man got killed over here not far from me off of Watt yesterday. People are going crazy by the minute. What's wrong with people. That was the man over by West Sacramento. He over there by me and we're driving through it and all the Sheriff's and Police had the street blocked off and I hardly couldn't see it and I'm driving. And on the news, it was on there.

I said I hope they don't kill my baby and he had a gun. That girl I think did say he had a gun and he took her car.

What kind of gun did he have? Same as that man on TV I'm telling you. What did he shoot at the people for? What did he say? He has a drug problem I think. Sometimes they say he'd be high and will be hallucinating. I don't know if it's true because when he sees me he's got a clear head but he acts strange ever since he got back from prison not to long ago. He don't act the same. I never talked to him about it. He'd say, I got to go mom, bye. He'll do that when I want to talk to him about anything. I'm not knowing. Their daddy raised them when we broke up. They were back in forth between us. But he raised them all the way up through teenage years and he was giving him problems then. His daddy could tell you more than me about his behavior and stuff and I know we have mental problems in our family and my sister said he needs help. They've been saying this before this happened.

His dad is [REDACTED] I just got out of the hospital myself. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] We're sick and we're just tired. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] and when they're doing this, it's just killing me.

I think he started getting on drugs. His behavior changed. To me he hasn't been right since he got out of prison. I think it was four years. I have to make myself realize he's institutionalized or something. I don't know. He's probably crazy. He can't stay out no time. I don't know why. Him and his brother is my last 2 babies and as a mother I just wanted my baby to stay out of trouble and stay out of jail.

I never knew him to mess with guns. That's what I'm telling you. He ain't never had guns that I've known of. All the years he's been a bad teenager he's never touched no gun. No job is probably why he's frustrated. I don't know where he'd get money for one. His girlfriend's been with him. She can tell you more than me. His daddy and me don't know. He'll in and out talk to us.

He hasn't seen his brother in 10 years. It's ██████. That's his oldest brother. He talked to the police last night. He's the one who called and told me that the man said something about the gun and he shot at people. One gun went off in her house. Did you get that information sir? Did he shoot at the girl? The gun went off in her house I heard. It might have been an accident probably. I don't think he'd try to shoot her. She would have told me when she called that he tried to shoot her. She's crazy too. I don't pay her no attention either. I know they fight and argue all the time. I ain't been bothered with her. I been too sick and tell them don't call me with all that mess.

How many charges does he got? What's the charges? You know people are snapping. I don't know why they snap. I think he done snapped. That's all I can tell you, to do something like this. My baby has to snap. That is not his character.

I never knew him to have no gun.

That's on him. My momma always told me that you make your bed, then you lie in it. He knows about the consequences. I don't know babe.

I'm asking you do you think he snapped or what? You all should put him under psychiatric treatment too. Do that for me. Definitely do that for me. That's not my son's character, not no gun.

On 04-21-12, at approx. 0807 hrs., I (Det. Vigon) contacted wit. ( ) at HOJ. The interview was video recorded and the DVD later booked into evidence. She stated the following in summary, in Spanish:

I went to pick up my brother(wit. ( )) at a party he was at on Del Paso Blvd/El Camino. It was around 0200 hrs.. We were driving home and I pulled into the left turn lane at El Camino/Thelma. The other (suspect vehicle) car came into the yellow turn lane toward us. I could not avoid him. He came at us so fast.

He crashed into us head on. I could see him inside his car. He had a rifle. He pointed the rifle at us, it was brown. My door would not open. My brother got out of the car and helped me out his door. I ran away around the corner. I don't know if he (suspect) got out of his car. We were busy running.

The suspect started firing his rifle. I don't know how many shots I heard. By that time my brother had run to me. We could not see the suspect. After a few minutes the police arrived. I heard their sirens arrived. I heard more gunfire. I don't know how many shots.

We went back to our car. I didn't want them to think it was our fault. The police interviewed us. They took me home so I could use the bathroom. They then brought us here. We are not hurt.

I don't know what the suspect was wearing. He was an Afro-American male. He was in his car. I don't know if I can I.D. him. The only gunfire I hear was when we were already around the corner.

(4-21-12, 0818 hours, Hall of Justice, interview room #3, audio/video recorded, in summary:)

I was a ride-along tonight with Officer Surjan. He has been a friend of mine since junior high, so for about 18 years I guess.

I went on a ride-along with Officer Surjan because I've applied to be a police officer in Austin, Texas. I have an interview next week with them, and they suggested that I go on a fresh ride-along before the interview. I was able to squeeze one in with Officer Surjan. I chose Austin PD because they are hiring. I would like to apply with Sacramento PD, but they aren't hiring because of the budget. My wife has family there, so I am familiar with that area.

I started the ride-along with Officer Surjan tonight at the beginning of his shift. I attended the roll-call briefing at 9:00 PM last night. I've been on ride-alongs with Officer Surjan before, and we've talked about safety and he's answered my questions about what to do if he gets into a pursuit, what he wants me to do during a traffic stop, but not anything so specific as what happened this morning. We've talked about general "what to do" type things. Officer Surjan usually advised that I was in an observational role and not to get involved in any situation unless he is in a "life-or-death fight for his life type thing." He left it to my best instinct to get to a safe position if something happened.

Basically, this incident began when we were at a DUI stop for the acting-sergeant (I didn't catch his name). We were there and a call came out for a traffic collision stating the car was on fire. Officer Surjan said, "Let's go to that," and we headed over there.

We got on scene, and once we pulled up and turned the spotlight on, there were two cars in the middle of the roadway. The scene looked as though they were obviously in an accident. I didn't immediately see any occupants get out of the vehicles. I noticed a number of bystanders/witnesses scattered about the periphery of the scene there.

Upon arriving, Officer Surjan exited the vehicle to, I guess, make contact or investigate the vehicles. At that point, one of the bystanders advised Officer Surjan that "the man had a gun." He said, "Careful, he has a gun," or something. Officer Surjan inquired what he was referring to, and the bystander advised that there was someone in the car, and at that point, the occupant of the vehicle kind of stood up, and you could see him immediately exit the vehicle. And when he stood up, it was apparent he was holding a rifle.

At that point, he [suspect] proceeded to turn and face our vehicle. Officer Surjan told him to "drop the gun." When he did that, I already had my door open to get out if I needed to. I was waiting for Officer Surjan to make contact before I exited. I saw that the suspect had a gun, and that's when I heard Officer Surjan say "Drop the gun." Immediately after he said "Drop the gun," is when the suspect turned. That's when Officer Surjan stepped back towards the trunk of the patrol car and fired two shots.

At that point, I was crouched outside the vehicle behind the door. In the periphery of my vision, I saw the muzzle flash and Officer Surjan moved to behind the trunk of the patrol car, and then he sprinted across to one of the vehicles that were involved in the accident, the Honda. Officer Surjan moved behind that. After Officer Surjan passed me, I decided that I should move, so I sprinted across the intersection, if you will, to the northeast corner along the fence line and turned to face the scene.

Officer Surjan was behind the Honda, facing the gunman who had moved to the, uh, to place the patrol vehicle between him and Officer Surjan. When I noticed the gunman was still active, I moved across the street, so westward to a large tree. I crouched behind there, and during that movement, Officer Surjan was commanding the suspect to "Drop his weapon."

Sometime between me running across the street and moving positions, the suspect did put down his weapon, but he was not complying with the commands to face away and move towards Officer Surjan's voice and he laid down on the street. That's when two other officers arrived with their weapons drawn. Then two more officers arrived, and shortly after that, the gunman complied. They handcuffed him and had him in-custody.

["As you were told to 'Get in the car, we are going to go to this call,' did he go lights and siren?"]

Initially we were driving quickly, but we weren't "rolling code." I asked Officer Surjan, "Is this something we should be going code to?" I was asking if it was something serious, and it was kind of a slow night, so he said, "We can." So we did. We threw on the lights, and it was only a short drive after we had left. Initially we didn't because there wasn't a sense of urgency, but then we did go "lights and sirens" after we got closer.

Officer Surjan told me what type of a call it was, and it had limited details. As we were enroute, more calls were coming in that, in hindsight, we realized they were all connected. At first it was like, there was a burning vehicle, then there were "Shots in an apartment," then it was like, "Shots in a vehicle." Like I said, in hindsight, we realized they were all related. But at this point, we thought we were going to a call for a burning vehicle, either related to a traffic collision or abandoned, or whatever the case may be.

["At any time as you were approaching the scene, did he turn the lights and sirens off?"]

Uh, sirens off at some point. As we were enroute, I remember hearing them, but the lights were still on when we arrived.

["Do you remember when he went lights and siren that the, whether or not the in-car camera activated?"]

I didn't notice it. I'd say you are referring to the screen right here [pointing up as in the ceiling of the patrol car]. I've seen how it clicks on, and I know there's a control panel for it. I don't recall if the screen clicked on. I don't recall one way or the other.

["From this ride-along or from the previous ones, have you seen it activated, and you know how it turns on?"]

I have seen the screen turn on, and I don't know if that means that the only time it turns on recording. But I don't know specifically what criteria it uses to turn on, or how it turns on except when you turn on the lights. I know it comes on automatically for that.

["Has Officer Surjan ever briefed you as to how it activates?"]

Uh, no. We've chatted about the presence of that camera and how it starts and stops. I understand that. Uh, no, we haven't talked about what activates the camera.

["So as you're approaching this collision scene, you said that you didn't notice anybody standing around the cars or in the cars?"]

Correct. Once we initially pulled up, we kind of got to the point on the street, maybe a few hundred feet away, and as we were entering from that point, Officer Surjan put his spotlight on the cars to see what was going on. It was obvious the two cars hit each other, and as we pulled up there were no bodies lying around the street. It was kind of weird. It wasn't what you would expect for a traffic collision. The position of the Camry was such that you couldn't see the front seats. At least from my vantage point, I could see the two front seats of the Honda, and I could clearly see there wasn't anyone in that car as well.

["When Officer Surjan exited the car, what did he do when he exited the car?"]

Um, he put the car in park, obviously, and he opened his door and stepped out. He didn't give me any instructions of what to do.

["How soon after Officer Surjan stepped out did this person somewhere says, "Look out," or made the warning about the gun?"]

Uh, basically immediately. Basically, as soon as Officer Surjan stepped fully out of the vehicle. As I recall, he made a step up like he was starting to approach the car, and somebody standing nearby gave that warning. I don't recall if Officer Surjan closed or partially closed his car door. It was open as I recall.

I had opened my door, but I hadn't stepped out yet. I was waiting for Officer Surjan to approach first and see what the situation was.

["Did you hear with your own ears the warning that this other person made?"]

Yes.

["Do you recall, to the best of your recollection, what exactly did that person say?"]

He basically said, "Careful, or 'watch out,' he has a gun."

["Did you see who was saying it?"]

Uh, I didn't see it. I just heard it. I saw two or three people who were standing on the opposite of the intersection across from the car. Like I said, I don't know what their relationship to the scene was. I didn't see who said it, but I assume it came from there.

["Was it a male or a female voice?"]

Male voice.

["To your recollection, what exactly were the words that he told Officer Surjan?"]

It was first, "Watch out, he has a gun." Officer Surjan inquired what he was referring to. At that point, Officer Surjan ignored me and looked at the Camry, and then the person advised him, "In that car right there." I'm not sure what his exact words were, but that was the vehicle he indicated to. It was the car right in front of Officer Surjan's patrol vehicle. The Camry.

["Was that your perception that the guy was referring to the Camry? Or the Honda?"]

Uh, it was my perception that he was referring to the Camry. I didn't see him gesturing, but if he did, the Camry was the only vehicle that really could have been, from my vantage point. It was clear from my vantage point that the Honda was unoccupied. I don't know from Officer Surjan's vantage point. It looked like the Camry was the car that someone with a gun could be hiding and couldn't be seen.

["From your vantage point as you're sitting in the car, you are sitting in Officer Surjan's patrol car and you are sitting in the front passenger seat?"]

Right.

["Uh, how did he position his car in relation to the Camry?"]

Well, see, the Camry was facing westbound. We pulled up to what would be the rear of that vehicle. Basically facing the rear of the Camry. Officer Surjan didn't stop directly behind the Camry distance-wise, just directly facing the rear of the vehicle. The Honda was to the passenger-front side of the patrol car.

["So {the Honda} was basically to the right?"]

Yes, correct.

["So the way Officer Surjan positioned the patrol car, if I have this right, then the Camry would have been directly in front of you?"]

Mmm hmm.

["The Honda to your right?"]

Correct.

["So from what this male voice was saying, can you tell what direction from where you were positioned in the patrol car, which direction was that voice coming from? The warning?"]

Um, ahead to the driver's side, I guess. I don't know. If you are saying the front of the car is "north" then it would be northwest.

["I just want to simplify it. From where you were sitting, it was, if I have this right, where you heard the voice coming would be up ahead of and to your left?"]

Yes, correct.

["How did that make you feel when you heard that?"]

Um, it just made me alert, I guess. At that point when he said that, it was still like, "What the hell are you talking about? Who? Where?" Um, still didn't see him. And then it went from "Still didn't see him to immediately, um, he raised up and stepped out of the vehicle." It was all like in one motion.

Immediately after the guy alerted us, that's when the suspect like stood up and stepped out, and that's when I first saw the gun. My attention was directed at the Camry because it was right in front of us. Right after the guy had alerted us about the gun, is when the suspect, I guess he was leaning across the front seat or whatever. He sat up and then simultaneously opened the door. He stepped out, and that's when I saw he was holding the rifle "vertically." I could see the barrel standing above his shoulder.

["Could you see how he was holding the rifle?"]

When he initially stepped out of the vehicle he was holding it up, I don't know what position he had the stock, but he was holding it "vertically" [simulating holding a rifle at "port arms" position.] And then it dropped down and he turned [simulated holding a rifle pointed outward at hip level.]

["When he was stepping out of the car, was he holding it with two hands? Or was he holding the rifle with one hand?"]

Uh, can't say for sure, because he "facing behind me" when he first stepped out of the car. I don't believe he was holding it with two hands because he would have had to open the door. So it appeared to me, from my view, that he was holding it with one hand like this [simulating holding a rifle upward in the right hand while pushing open a door with the left] leaning through the door with the other.

["The way you're describing that he was holding the rifle with his right hand, and opening the door with his left?"]

Yes, and then he would have dropped it down [simulating holding rifle with two hands, pointing out at hip level], presumably. Still, he wasn't facing forward to me at that point. He always had his back to me up to that point. He dropped the rifle down to his left hand and then turned.

["So from your position when he's getting out, the person with the rifle had his back to you?"]

Uh, yes. Correct.

["So as he stepped out, did he close his door?"]

No.

["He left his door open?"]

Correct.

["At what point did he lower the rifle? The way you described it, he's lowering it like he's going to start pointing it?"]

That's what it appeared like to me. It wasn't a "raised aim," but it also wasn't a, you know, at that point it wasn't pointed towards the vehicle. It wasn't "shoulder-aimed," but it was kind of one fluid motion. The door was opened, he stood up, the gun dropped down, and he turned to face the door. He rotated counter-clockwise.

["So from your vantage point, what did it appear he was aiming at when he turned towards you?"]

The officer, which is probably all he could have seen because I wasn't even out of the vehicle at that point. That's only speculation. I was still sitting in the patrol car with my door open.

Officer Surjan said, "Drop the weapon. Drop the weapon." He maybe said it more, I don't remember, and then he fired two shots. I was still sitting in the car once Officer Surjan fired the shots. I moved out to a crouching position behind the door. Um, and once I realized or noticed that Officer Surjan had moved behind the trunk, he then crossed basically by me on the passenger side of the vehicle. That's when Officer Surjan moved over to go behind the Honda. It was at that point that I then ran back across the street, I guess more beside the adjacent street.

["Did the guy with the rifle fire any shots?"]

No.

["At any time from start to finish, did you see him fire any shots?"]

No.

["Did you hear any shots that?"]

It couldn't have been Officer Surjan's. Uh, no. Not after, I personally did not hear any shots except the two that Officer Surjan fired.

["The person with the rifle, did he say anything to Officer Surjan?"]

Um, yeah. It was only after, um, Officer Surjan fired and obviously missed. And the gunman had moved to take position behind the patrol car that he said at least once, "Please help me," or, "Help me. I need help." Something to that effect.

["When the man with the rifle first got out of the car, and Officer Surjan was giving the commands, was he responding in any way to them?"]

Um, no. Uh, I mean, it happened very quickly, but there was no indication that he was going to comply. He didn't change posture. He didn't drop the gun. He didn't put his hands up. There was no indication that I noticed that he intended to comply or change his disposition based on Officer Surjan's commands.

["Could you tell what his facial expression was?"]

Um, no I couldn't tell you.

["How would you best describe the person with the rifle?"]

Uh, African-American. I would say 5-10 to 6-0, dark hair. I believe he was wearing gray. I remember a gray shirt. I don't recall the pants. Um, a little on the stocky side, maybe 240, 230. Somewhere around there. Maybe in his early 40's. No facial hair that I noticed. His hair style was short, kind of, not short curls. Just short. I guess he had dark skin, but not toward the darkest shade of dark.

["How would you describe the rifle?"]

Uh, well initially, um, I perceived it to be a shotgun, because the "fore stock, the fore grip" looked ribbed, like you would see on a shotgun. But when he turned I noticed the, what do you call it? The "gas port, or gas break" that is typical like with a "Russian Kalashnikov" style rifle, or an "SKS," which it later turned out to be, and a similar front sight. So it was at that point that I realized it was a rifle of some sort and not a shotgun.

Uh, the gunman took a step or two after, rotating, bringing the rifle down, and rotating toward the patrol car. He made some motion. I don't know how many steps it was. It wasn't a rush, but he made some motion towards the patrol vehicle or Officer Surjan. It was at that point that Officer Surjan moved back towards the trunk, and then also fired the two shots.

["Did you see how close the gunman got to the patrol car at the time that the shots were fired?"]

15 feet. Within 15 feet. Between 15 and 20 feet would be my estimation.

["Where was the gunman positioned when the shots were fired? As accurate as?"]

As accurately as I remember, he would have been approximately parallel to the driver's side, trunk corner of the Camry. In my best estimation, that's when Officer Surjan fired the shots.

["So the driver's side, back corner of the Camry's trunk?"]

Correct.

["Before we came here to this office, were all the cars in the same position, at least Officer Surjan's car and the crashed cars are still in the same positions as when the shots were fired?"]

Yes.

["So nobody moved any cars at all?"]

After all the cars got onscene, the ones that were immediately within the, I guess, none of them were moved from the time I got there and the time I came here.

["So Officer Surjan fired the shots from what position? What position do you think he was at?"]

He would have been, he began firing while moving past the, I believe, the gas nozzle, what do you call that? Where the gas goes into the vehicle, the hatch. He was past there and to the passenger side corner of the patrol car's trunk.

["Did you actually see him firing the shots?"]

I wasn't looking at him directly, but from the corner of my eye I could see the muzzle flash. I could orient his position.

["What was your attention most directed at?"]

The guy [suspect.]

["Did you move to that crouching position before or after the shots were fired?"]

Um, I don't recall specifically, but it was basically between when the shots were fired and when he stepped out with the gun and turned. That was about when I turned from a seated position in the vehicle to a crouching position beside the door.

["So when he got out and started moving towards the patrol car, that's when you kind of stepped beside?"]

Exactly.

["Officer Surjan fired the shots, and then you noticed him move to the back of the car, and then sprint?"]

Yeah. Basically, I saw him run across my side to the Honda. It was at that point that I then sprinted across, not the opposite way, but to the right of the patrol vehicle to that side of the street.

["As this is happening, are you and Officer Surjan in any verbal communications?"]

No.

["As Officer Surjan sprinted toward that car, did you see where the guy with the rifle is?"]

Uh, yeah. He's moving towards the patrol car. I saw the guy move forward at the time I sprinted across the street. I stopped once I crossed the street, and turned to survey the situation, to see what was going on. It was at that point that I realized that he was still active, and did not appear to be hit. I slowed down, and then I saw him move to duck behind the patrol car. It was at that point that I crossed the street to move behind the tree that was there.

["After Officer Surjan moved past you and took cover behind the Honda, where was the guy with the rifle at when you moved positions?"]

Um, I guess I would describe it as in the "no-man's land" between his car and the patrol car. He wasn't near that Camry anymore.

The first position I moved to was a house at the northeast corner of the intersection. It had a wrought iron fence around the property, and I moved approximately 50 feet away from the patrol car along that fence. I crouched down, and then turned around to see what the situation was.

From that point, I could see Officer Surjan beside the driver's side of the Honda. He was facing the patrol car. I saw the suspect move to and duck behind the driver's side of the patrol car. That's when I decided to move to the northwest corner of the intersection and take cover behind a tree.

When I turned to face the situation again, the suspect was obstructed from my view because of the patrol car. Officer Surjan was continuing to give commands to him to drop the weapon and walk towards his voice. I assumed at that point that because Officer Surjan was telling him to "Walk backwards" to him, that he had dropped the weapon somewhere between being between the vehicles to being behind the patrol car.

I don't have any tactical training, so I probably should have continued running, but I only perceived the threat to be in the space between the vehicles, so I moved a distance away from the area I perceived the exchange of gunfire would be. I turned to reassess the situation, expecting to see that the gunman had been shot. When I turned to see that he was still active, I determined that I needed cover, as opposed to being away [next to the wrought iron fence.]

["So you are on the sidewalk crouched next to this wrought iron fence, and you perceive that he is still active. What did you see that made you think that?"]

When I turned to face the scene again, to reassess what is going on, I could see that the suspect is still moving back by the patrol car, and not lying in the street between the two cars. Officer Surjan is commanding him to "Drop the gun," and to "Walk backwards toward my voice." At that point I moved across the street to get behind the tree. I can't say for sure that I was behind the tree when Officer Surjan issued the command to walk back to him, but he was still giving the commands for the suspect to drop the weapon. Sometime when I was crossing the street, the commands changed to "Move backwards towards my voice."

From the tree looking towards the scene, the Honda is towards the right of the tree in front of it. At that point I knew Officer Surjan's position, but I could only partially see him. I was looking towards the scene on my left side around the tree. So basically, I was facing the patrol car, and the tree is between me and the patrol car. Officer Surjan was still behind the Honda, and the suspect was still on the driver's side of the patrol car.

At first, I couldn't see the suspect, but then I sort of stood up, and kind of wandered from the patrol car, and then stepped back behind the patrol car. And then he stepped in front of the patrol car, not really facing Officer Surjan, but also not really racing away from him. And then the other officers came in and pulled up, and came out with their guns drawn. They finally got the suspect to comply, and he laid down in front of the patrol car.

["So Officer Surjan was still by himself? He's the only officer there when he first came out and started to comply?"]

Correct. Uh, it was only, basically right before he started to comply that the other officers pulled up, and at that point he did finally comply.

["Did the suspect initially stand up and start to comply, and then go back behind the patrol car?"]

Yeah, he did kind of crouch down and, I don't know, second-guessed or whatever. So he started to comply, and then he didn't.

["When he first started to comply, did he have the rifle with him?"]

No.

["What was the suspect's body position when he stood up from the patrol car the first time?"]

Uh, I don't recall. Initially, when he stood up, his hands were not straight up in the air. I don't think he was facing Officer Surjan. Initially, when he first stood up he was facing away from Officer Surjan. He didn't have the rifle at that point. I assume it was dropped. Well, now I know where it was because I saw where the officers retrieved it from the Officer Surjan's side of the patrol car. But when he stood up, I did not see that he had the rifle in his hands.

["When he didn't comply, what did he do?"]

He kind of took a knee like he was going to go all the way down, and then he stood back up and kind of turned to face Officer Surjan. Timing-wise, I don't know if the other officers were already there yet, if they had their guns drawn, or if they just pulled up. But once there were three officers on scene or maybe four with their guns drawn, at that point he did comply completely. That's when he went down to the ground and they handcuffed him.

The first two officers who arrived to help pulled up coming westbound. The next two officers pulled up driving eastbound. They all pretty much arrived simultaneously. A lot more showed up, but it was basically four officers who initially arrived first to assist. I don't know if that influenced the suspect's decision to comply, but once that many officers had him at gunpoint, he complied.

["Did the suspect say anything from the time you got to the tree to the time the officers arrived?"]

Not that I heard. I only heard him say "Help me," or something to that effect after he moved behind the patrol vehicle.

I think it was Officer Surjan who handcuffed the suspect, but I'm not sure. Like I said, there were four other officers there.

["You said that you saw where the gun ended up being located at. Where was it located?"]

It was towards the back, I don't know how close in proximity to the patrol vehicle, but it was on the driver's side, behind the driver's side of the patrol vehicle toward the back, I guess towards the rear wheel of Officer Surjan's patrol car. I didn't see where the rifle actually was, I just saw where the officers were they retrieved it from. I saw the officer pick it up, but I don't recall which officer it was. I think it was a female officer, but I'm not sure. Initially it was a female officer that was the first to arrive at the scene, but I don't recall how long between when the suspect was secured and when they retrieved the rifle, so I can't say for certain who retrieved the rifle.

["Did you and Officer Surjan have any discussions about this after this happened?"]

Um, just, you know, just, "Hey," whatever. We discussed kind of the events, what happened. He had a different perspective than me, obviously.

["Did he tell you what his perspective was?"]

He didn't tell me his frame of mind, and he did share his perspective of when he saw the gunman move, his rotating move toward the patrol vehicle. He was worried because the suspect had a rifle, not a shotgun or a small caliber pistol, and how that would impact or limit his tactical options in that situation.

["Did he tell you how he saw the suspect handling the firearm?"]

Um, I don't recall hearing him talk specifically, other than sharing the same perspective or view that I had, stepping out of the vehicle and turning, facing toward the patrol car with the gun pointed towards the patrol car. I thought he was pointing the rifle towards us, not specifically toward Officer Surjan.

["How did this situation make you feel?"]

Um, worried for sure. Everyone says it's okay to feel scared, but I didn't feel scared enough that my life was in danger, even though it did happen. I just, um, being a ride-along I wasn't in a position to offer any sort of assistance to Officer Surjan. I had no weapon, so I just knew, or felt that the best thing that I could do was to stay out of his way, and you know, not make myself a target, and trust in him to control the situation. And once I determined that, as I described, the gunman did not comply immediately, and did not go down after having shots fired, that's when I reassessed the situation twice to come to the best course of action. First, moving away, and then going to cover as the gunman changed positions.

["Put all the tactical aspects away and tell me, why did you do what you did?"]

I was next to the vehicle when I perceived the officer next to me. When the gunman was moving closer, I noticed Officer Surjan moved to the back. I don't know what he was planning to do. Since he didn't shoulder the gun, and he wasn't pointing it in a "deliberate manner," I assumed he was intoxicated or crazy, or confused, or whatever the case may be. Um, which is even more uncertain. You can't determine what their motives are in those situations. I guess when I saw him not shoulder the weapon, I determined that my best course of action was to stay next to the vehicle. But when Officer Surjan moved to the Honda to get a better firing position, and the suspect was moving closer to the patrol vehicle, that's when I decided to move away into cover.

["Were you afraid that you might get shot by this guy?"]

Again, I should have felt afraid, but when I moved across the street by the fence, the thought did cross my mind that I was out in the open, and that he could see me move. Because at that point, I assumed that he wasn't seeing me as a target. But when I realized he could see me and he could fire on me once I move across, um, but I just kind of laughed at that. I guess I thought that if I did move and he saw me, that he would expose himself to fire upon me and give Officer Surjan a clear shot to fire upon him. So that's when I got up to move to the tree. And when I turned around to see if he fired, and he still hadn't fired.

During the whole event, I was concerned that one of us was going to be shot or fired upon.

INVESTIGATIVE FOLLOW UP (WITNESS ( ) STATEMENT )

On 04-21-12, at approx. 0835 hrs., I (Det. Vigon) contacted wit. ( ) at HOJ. The interview was video recorded and the DVD later booked into evidence. She stated the following in summary, in Spanish:

I was at my friend's house at Del Paso Blvd/El Camino. My sister ( ) went to pick me up. We were driving home and were in the left turn lane at El Camino/Thelma waiting to turn. The other (suspect vehicle) car came into the yellow turn lane toward us. He came into our lane fast. He crashed into us head on. We had to get out thru my (passenger) door because my sister's door would not work.

I saw the guy had a gun. We ran. We ran toward Hawk Street. I got scared when I saw the gun. We ran. I heard gunshots. I heard lots of gunfire. I don't know if it was into the air or where. I saw the suspect display a gun. (He demonstrates it's size by holding his hands about 18 inches apart.) We ran before he could get out of his car.

The police came. I could hear them talking over their P.A. system (unknown what said). We could not see what was happening because we ran around street, behind bushes. The suspect was a black male, unknown clothing or description.

The police later took us back home so my sister could use the bathroom, then here. The suspect was in a green car.

I heard more gunfire when the police arrived. The gunshots sounded the same to me.

I had been drinking at my friend's house. I did not use any other drugs.

On 04-21-12, at approx. 0645 hrs. I (Det. [REDACTED]) contacted [REDACTED] at [REDACTED] Greenlea Ave and obtained the following statement in summary:

I'm not going to get in your van and I don't want to go to your police station to talk to you, because even though I don't live around there, I know people who don't want me taking to the police and I don't want anyone finding out I'm talking to you. At around 3 am this morning I was in the garage playing pool with my girlfriend [REDACTED] and her friends [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] when we heard the sound of skidding, then an impact. We ran over there and as soon as we got to the corner I saw some guy who looked real scared and he was walking really fast down Thelma, past us. He saw us walking toward the accident and he said to me in Spanish, "Don't go over there, that guy is heavily armed" and he said something about something getting aimed at him, but I can't remember how he phrased it. While he was telling me this, he held his arms up as if he was holding a rifle. I turned around and the guy who warned me disappeared, I don't know where he went and all I can remember about he was that he was a Mexican guy?but I do know that he came back when everything was over and I saw him talking to an officer.

After the guy warned me, I just stood on the corner and watched everything. After the accident, the car the shooter was in, I think it was a dark colored compact car, started to rev up and was filling full of smoke. I couldn't tell how many people were in there, but there was movement in the back seat and I could see muzzle flashes from the front passenger area, so I actually thought there were a few guys in the car at first, but think it was just the one guy moving back and forth inside the car. I saw and heard a least two or three shots fired while he was still in the car. He kept shooting and it looked like he was either pointing the gun in the air, or maybe in the direction of the other street that keeps going on the other side of where the crash was (Dorine Wy). A few times, with the way the street lights were, I was able to see the reflection of what I thought could have been the metal of a rifle through the back of the car.

I couldn't see a whole lot because we were ducking behind a wall and every time he shot, we ducked down.

When the police car showed up, it was a little hard to see because of the police car's overhead lights, but I did see the driver door of the shooter's car open when the cop car arrived. I saw the shooter get out of his car with what looked like a rifle and started kind of running back and forth. The shooter ran towards some houses and I lost sight of him. Right after I lost sight of him, I heard more gun fire. I figured the cops had shot him because he went down, but I guess somehow the shooter ended up near the officer's car because I heard the officer say, "Get away from my patrol car" and "put your hand up". I never saw the shooter point a gun at the officer and I never saw when he dropped the gun, but I know that he had the gun before I lost sight of him, and when I saw him again, he didn't have it. I really thought the cop shot him because I kept hearing the cop say, "get down, get down", but he wasn't listening. Once the shooter dropped to the ground, the other cops showed up and that was the end of it.

We all ran over there and as soon as we got to the corner, the Mexican guy ran past us and said some stuff to us in Spanish, then he kept going south on Thelma Ave. We came up around the corner and got close enough where I could see the car that the guy was in. I heard one shot go off and then we all ducked down and backed up a little and got behind the fence of the corner house. I tried calling 911 on my phone, but for some reason it was not working. We just stood there, crouched down for a bit and I could hear more shots going off. I don't know if he was firing inside the car at something or sticking the gun out of the window, I don't remember. I remember two guys came out of the house next door and almost walked up to the car but then I heard more shots and I saw them run back to their house.

After that, I remember seeing him in the front seat of the car and he stuck the gun out of the window and just start shooting into the air. I remember there being a couple of people who drove up and stopped in their cars and tried calling 911, but after we told them he was shooting, they either backed their car up or they turned around and drove away. It just seemed like whenever he saw someone coming up or anyone around him, he just started shooting his gun. I think he shot anywhere between 8 and 11 times while he was in the car. I didn't really see the gun well enough to describe it, but I just keep seeing him waive something around and it was shiny.

I heard the cops coming and I think he even shot once or twice when the cops first got there. I heard the cops telling him to get out of the car, put his hands up and drop his weapon. I think he got out with his gun because I remember his hands being out. I think the cops maybe shot at him and he dropped the gun.

I am pretty sure the cops shot at him twice. Another cop came from down the street and then there was another cop kind of on the other side and I remember seeing the guy jumping around for a minute before he got down on his knees. As soon as he dropped to his knees, I really couldn't see him anymore, but I'm pretty sure the cops went up to him. I would describe the guy who was shooting the gun as a male black in his 20's and I think he may have been wearing a red collared shirt. I did hear him say something during the whole incident, but I can't remember what it was.

***I showed [REDACTED] an overhead satellite photo of the scene and asked her to put an "X" where she and her friends were standing when they observed the subject shooting. [REDACTED] also put an "X" where the accident was and pointed out the house where she thought the two subjects came out of who began to approach the car, then ran back after she heard gun fire.***

Author: [REDACTED]

Subject: (WITNESS #20) [REDACTED]

Related date/time: Apr-23-2012 (Mon.) 1656

On 04-21-12, at approx. 0800 hrs. I (Det. [REDACTED]) contacted [REDACTED] at the Richards Police Facility in interview room #2 and obtained the following statement in summary:

A few of us were at [REDACTED]'s house playing pool. We heard a loud noise and someone made a comment that it sounded like someone's tire popped. Someone else said that it sound like a car crash, so we ran out of the garage and up to the corner and that is when I saw that two cars had wrecked head on. As we rounded the corner from Thelma to West El Camino, that is when we see the Mexican guy come running towards us. I speak Spanish so I understood him when he told us, "Don't go over there, the black guy has guns".

The Mexican guy kept running, so I thought maybe he was lying and he just told us that because he didn't want us to go over to the car wreck for whatever reason. I could see the head of a person in the driver seat of one of the cars and I could see him moving around, then we heard the first shot. After hearing the shot, we all crouched down near the brick fence of the house on the south east corner of West El Camino and Thelma. I really could not tell if the first shot we heard came from one of the cars in the collision or not.

[REDACTED] tried calling 911 but her phone was not working, so I ran back to [REDACTED]'s house to get my phone to call 911. I called 911 and stayed at the corner of Thelma and Greenlea 911 because I didn't want anyone to see that I was calling 911. It seemed like I was on hold forever and I was continuing to hear gun shots every so often. I think I heard about 5 shots before I was finally connected with CHP and while I was on the line with the CHP dispatcher and she was trying to transfer me to the police department, I could hear several shots, maybe 3, being fired.

When I was connected to the police department, it sounded like they had already gotten calls about it because she was asking me if the shooter was in the sedan or the Honda. At that point, [REDACTED], who had been at the corner of El Camino watching everything, ran back to where I was standing and started giving me updates. [REDACTED] told me that he was in the back seat shooting up in the air, which I relayed to the dispatcher. The dispatcher told me that they had officers on the way and I could hear sirens off in the distance, so I ended my call with the police and started walking back up to El Camino. As [REDACTED] and I walked back to the crash, the Mexican guy who had warned us then ran down Thelma was also coming back, but he had two females with him.

When [REDACTED] and I got back to El Camino, I saw that the police had arrived. I was standing on the south west corner of West El Camino and Thelma and that is when I saw a black guy who looked to be in dark clothing, maybe a black shirt, and he ran towards the officers. The guy's back was to me, so I could not see his face or if he had anything in his hands but he had what I would call an aggressive type of posture. ** [REDACTED] stood up and demonstrated the posture by holding up her arms so that her elbows were almost in line with her shoulders and both hands were near the mid-point of her abdomen***

When I saw the guy moving aggressively like I described, I could not see any officers yet, but I think there were maybe two police cars there. I heard one shot and I don't know who it came from. Then I heard someone say, "Put your weapon down, put you weapon down". The guy went down and then I could see one of the officers coming around a car and I could see him reaching up to his shoulder microphone and I heard him saying, "Shots fired, shots fired". The cop had his gun out and he was giving what sounded like instructions like back up, get down, stay there?things like that. Other officers got there shortly after and started telling us to get back in our houses.

Document: 03 SUSPECT STATEMENT

Author: 916 - SHRUM, THOMAS 0362

Subject: (ARREST/CITE #1) GRANT, RUSSEL

Related date/time: Apr-21-2012 (Sat.) 1522

On 4/21/12, at approximately 1500 hours, suspect Grant was brought to police headquarters (HOJ) by Officer Hendrickson and Officer Carson after he was medically cleared. Grant was brought in handcuffed and I exchanged the handcuffs for leg shackles. At approximately 1522 hours, I, Det. Shrum began an interview with suspect Russell Grant. The interview took place at HOJ in room 3 of 6 interview rooms and the interview was recorded to DVD.

I explained to Grant that he was under arrest for shooting a gun, for possessing a gun, confronting a police officer with a gun to which he responded, "I didn't confront no police officer with no gun." I continued that he was under arrest for probably drunk driving and stated that I only knew what the officer saw. Grant stated that he didn't confront and his hands were up in the air and he didn't have a weapon and didn't draw down a weapon on officers. I explained that was what he was here for and that I wasn't here to trick him and Grant went on to say that I could have gave him an outline when I sat him in the room. Grant asked about his money and I told him we had his money, his gun, his car, and his girl's cell phone with a picture of him with a gun. Grant told me that we did not have his girl's cell phone with a picture of him with a gun. Grant told me that the picture was not pertaining to him and was not him.

I explained that he had rights as a U.S. Citizen and he didn't have to talk to me and in addition, there are two sides to every story. I explained that I wanted to get his side of the story and that we'd talked to others already about him. Grant again stated that he didn't shoot at an officer. I explained that there was another allegation that he fired a shot at his girl in the room and Grant asked me who said it. I explained that [REDACTED] stated he fired it in the room and it hit right by her and she wasn't sure what was going on. Grant asked if it was what she said against him and I told him that it was. Grant told me that the police would have been to her house and I explained that we had and recovered a bullet that went through a neighbor wall and that we have it and that it was going to match the gun. I explained to Grant that it wasn't whether it was fired or not but was whether he intended to hit her and what was going on. Grant told me he didn't fire a shot at her through a wall.

I asked Grant to let me finish as I was trying to advise him of Miranda. Grant told me that it was some tough shit right there and I agreed with him. I told Grant that he had the right to remain silent and asked if he understood. He said yes and asked if that's what it was about, him firing a shot at her. I explained that he fired several shots and that was the allegation. Grant responded, "The gun went off in the car when I wrecked. The gun went off. I'm telling you that but I didn't shoot at my girl..."

I asked Grant to let me remind me of his rights and then he can say all this because that was fair from me to him to remind him and that if I tried to trick him into talking to me, that wasn't right. Grant asked if he could call his girl and I told him possibly but we'd need to talk to each other first as I didn't know if she wanted to talk and he would talk to her trying to determine what happened. Grant stated he would ask her and stated again that he didn't fire a shot. I told him that there's a hole in an apartment wall and they recovered a round that would probably match the rifle when we compared ballistics to the rifle that he set down on the road. I again asked to finish and mirandized Grant using the SPD 133 card. He verbally acknowledged understanding all of his rights and I interviewed Grant and began to question him. Grant stated the following in summary:

S= suspect Russell Grant

D= detective Thomas Shrum

S- I didn't fire no gun at my girl man. She left the house before I even had that. You got me pondering, what the fuck right now. Did she call the police after that when that happened? Did the neighbors call the police?

D- There were multiple calls.

S- There's security she stays.

D- I can tell you at this point we've talked to all kinds of people to pretty much confirm that the gun was fired in the apartment. Now if you're saying that she's lying about being shot at, tell me what happened.

S- I didn't let no shot off in there. I'm not gonna sugar coat none of that. I'm not going to sit in here and lie to you, straight up. I didn't shoot no fucking shot at my girl.

D- If you're going to try to be honest, where did you leave the gun case at?

S- Where do you mean the gun case?

D- We found a gun case for the rifle near there. Where did you leave it at, if you're trying to be honest.

S- It was at her house under the bed but I always put it up in there and keep it on safety in the house. I never pointed the gun. I'm not going to do nothing to jeopardize her household to be kicked out. You got me figuring where'd the fucking round come from? I'm not that stupid.

Det- You had guns in the round because we found rounds in the car.

S- I know but I'm trying to figure out who the fuck, where'd the shot go.

Det- Here's the real good part. It didn't hit her.

S- But I didn't shoot at her. She left that house. We're arguing and drinking. She left the house. She's got a 17 year old son. You could ask him. That was her car I got in. I got in the car. She never drove. (Sarcastically) I'm gonna shoot a round at my girl, a big ass round like that in an apartment. Come on man, I'm gonna shoot that at her.

D- I'll admit if you were shooting at her and meant to hit her, you would have hit her.

S- I wasn't shooting at her.

D- It's not that hard to point and hit what you're shooting at and obviously, how did the round get fired then?

S- I don't even know. That's what I'm tripping off right now. I swear I don't know. I'm tripping right now. That's what I'm wondering. What time was the shot fired? When did police, all that. I'm trying to figure it out.

D- There's all kinds of witnesses, after things like this happen they canvass the whole neighborhood and they talk to neighbors and neighbors were sleeping and they heard what time it went off. It went off right before you left there and right before you crashed the car so we know it's all related unless you're saying that someone else grabbed the gun from you but you have to tell me if that's what the case was.

S- I'm not going to sit here and even lie to you. Man I don't remember letting off no round in that house. Ain't no sugar coating. I told you the gun went off inside the car when I crashed. Now, I took the gun out of the car but I could have really ran out to a field and really threw it if I really wanted to get rid of it like that but at the same time, I didn't shoot at my girl. I didn't do none of that man, straight up. You know what I'm saying, I aimed a gun at her?

D- I'm not saying that.

S- She said that? That's what I'm tripping off of.

D- She's not saying that you hit her. She's saying it hit right by her so nobody's knowing what's going through your head or what happened, when you're pulling this gun, what happens?

S- Man I didn't ever have hold of no gun, playing with my girl. If a bullet went past her, I would have known. I'm not gonna sit here and say I didn't do this and wu-wu. I'm not gonna sit here and lie to you. That's attempted murder on my girl. I'm not gonna sit here and lie.

Det- I'll be honest. There's no charge we've put on any paperwork for attempted murder.

S- Damn near. You said she said the bullet went past her. That bullet ain't gonna skim past her. That bullet's humming through walls.

D- It went through walls and the reality is it's there. We recovered it.

S- Was there gun powder residue up in the house and all that?

Det- I don't know about that. The hole is in the wall.

S- Where at in the house?

D- from the bedroom into one of the neighboring apartments. It went through a couple of walls and those rifle rounds don't stop.

S- I never let the shot off in there. I know you all had to pick up gun powder residue in there or whatever. I know that I didn't let no shot off up in there. I'm not going to jeopardize my girl's residence.

D- I'm not saying that's what was going through your mind was trying to jeopardize her residence. I don't think you would do anything like that purposely to your girl hopefully. You love your girl I assume. You're calling her your girl. What were you guys arguing about tonight?

S- Nothing. It wasn't even an argument. It was just a disagreement and it wasn't even like that man. I didn't put my hands on her or nothing. You can call her. I'll put it on speaker.

D- There's no allegation you put your hands on her.

S- No not put my hands on her. I'm wondering, the shot went off through the wall. I'm tripping on that, like for real? You know what I'm saying. I didn't let off no round in the house man.

D- Let me ask you this, it's 4 o'clock in the morning or 3 o'clock, between 3 and 4.

S- I was in the hospital at 3 or 4.

D- What time was it when this happened when you got into the car? It was like 2.

S- No it ain't 2. It's probably like 12 or 1 because I went to that store over there. I went to the liquor store.

D- Your car crash was at 2:44. That's when all kinds of neighbors started calling about you shooting off the gun after you had crashed. I'm just telling you what they said, I'm not arguing with you. It's 2:44 so if you're telling me that you're having this minor confrontation that's not really anything, why did she feel like she had to leave at 2 o'clock in the morning because that's what time she said it was.

S- Who, [REDACTED]?

D- Ya. Why did she have to leave here house?

S- She didn't leave. She just left for a walk and I said I'm gone. Go ahead. That's what it was. You see what I'm saying. She does that. She just bounce and goes for a walk. Ask her. I'm not lying.

D- I'm not accusing you of lying. I didn't talk to her but somebody's lying. Either she's lying or you're lying. There can't be two truths.

S- Lying about what? I don't know the time specifically.

D- I'm not talking about the time because you could not perceive that right. I understand that. You don't really know what time it is unless your looking at a watch or a clock but I'm talking about the details of what happened tonight. If you're saying it's a minor thing nobody should have left or she's saying it's a major thing.

S- She said it was major?

D- It was major enough for her to leave.

S- She didn't leave like that. She goes for a walk when we argue to give each other distance instead of arguing and turning it into something bigger. That's all that was and I left in a car.

D- There's a problem with that too because we have a witness that says she didn't want to let you have her car, maybe because you've been drinking or something, and that you took it without her permission and against her wanting you to do that. Maybe she knew how you were. Tell me what the minor thing that you guys were arguing for was.

S- Nothing. It was just a disagreement, do you know what I mean.

D- Not until you tell me what it's about do I know what you mean.

S- It's bullshit.

D- I know, but this bullshit means something today.

S- She can tell you. You can call her. She can tell you it was a dispute. It was I'm looking at this bitch or doing this or doing this, you know what I mean? It was miscellaneous shit.

D- Today specifically a girl came up in it. I'm asking about today. I understand you guys have, everybody has their spats.

S- Ya, it's a trust issue. It's just bickering. Nothing dramatic where I put my hands on her or nothing like that or called her name or nothing like that but she goes overboard when she gets mad when she gets mad. I might restrain her or whatever but at the same time, she walked away and left.

D- After you leave, you go and get into the car. Can you tell me what you remember doing next?

S- I get into a wreck. I don't even know how dude wrecked me. I don't even remember none of that shit. All I know is I had a wreck then, I get out, police say get down. I get down. They cuff me. I wake up in the hospital man. Just right now, I don't remember none of that shit. I don't, and then you're saying. I don't know. I didn't let off no fucking round man.

D- Not just one. You let off a lot of rounds and the gun didn't accidentally fire either.

S- Why it didn't?

D- Well, it's in your car right? I'm just looking at it logically. I wasn't with you. I'm just trying to figure out if you're telling me the truth it, it's laying in your car. You get in a wreck and it just goes off but there's no bullet holes going from the inside of your car to the outside.

S- There's not. I don't even know how it was laying. I had it laying like this, tilted you know what I mean so I don't know how it went off.

D- People also saw you shooting. They'll have to come and say that and I don't think they'll have a problem doing that because these aren't people that knew you. There's no reason for them to lie for you or against you.

S- What would I do letting off a gun after I got in a wreck?

D- Well, here's what I think is that you're angry about what just happened. You just got in a spat with your girl, enough where you thought you had to leave. I'm guessing that she's mad about the gun because you took the gun and didn't leave it there. That's my guess but I don't know and so once you do this, you're just fed up and you fire it off. It's what caused this whole thing to begin with. I'm guessing that she probably doesn't really like guns but I don't know. There's a reason all this happened. Maybe you had it out and that's what the argument is really about but saying it's this and that, that doesn't add up to her having to take a walk really.

S- She always takes a walk.

D- But it doesn't add up to you taking off with the gun tonight and it being fired.

S- Actually I was just going to leave and take it to my dad's house.

D- Now I don't think that you purposely wrecked.

S- I don't even know how the wreck happened.

D- I don't know either. I know there's people that talked to the other car people to try to figure that out.

S- What'd they say?

D- I don't even know. I didn't talk to them. I'll be honest with you but I'm thinking it might have had more to do with you than with them.

like go over there. I went over there and I had my hands up the whole time. If he shot at me, he's gonna hit me. He's not gonna miss. I didn't even hear no gunshot go off. I'm like this (hands raised) the whole time, not even moving. Man they got a camera. I never shot at the police man, straight up. Let me ask you something. If I let off shots at the police, you think I'm just gonna stay there?

D- Let me go back and clarify. The issue is that you pointed it at him. I didn't say you shot, okay? And the officer didn't say you shot. Let me clarify that. But he thought he was going to die and he shot at you because you came out of the car, he's saying that you came out of the car with the gun and I'm trying to figure out why you would do that.

S- I didn't come it with no gun because he, man, they arrested me already when I got out the car. As soon as I got out he said put your hands up. I never had no gun in my possession or I wouldn't have been able to put my hands up. You see what I'm saying. The gun was already out.

D- Well that's what you're saying to me but I can tell you a little bit of how it was described by witnesses and the officer is that they said you came out with the gun. The officer told you to put it down. You started advancing on him. He went for cover and fired at you and after some time, more units came and you set the gun down where they found it and did surrender so I appreciate that you didn't shoot the officer.

S- When I got arrested though, it was only two units. They put me in a back seat. One was pulling up while other dude was right there. I put my hands up so.

D- The gun was already out of the car.

S- So I couldn't at no time try to advance on him and draw down with the gun, none of that. I got rid of the gun before the police even pulled up and got back in the car. When I braked and shit, boom-boom, it went off. I took the gun, panicked, threw it over there. I didn't even go stash it hell a good. I just (threw). Then the police. I just (hands up). You see what I'm saying? I didn't try to let off no shots to hurt nobody or pointing no gun at no police. No, man the gun went off man. In the mother-fucking car, you know what I'm saying? I'm not that stupid. I'm not that fucking stupid to shoot at the police.

D- I clarified that.

S- Even my girl. There ain't that much love in the world. If she's gonna go she's gonna go and I'm not gonna make you be with me or be desperate. That's not me, you feel me? That's real as fuck. I didn't try to shoot nothing at that woman man. I don't even know where all that came from man.

D- So why, how did it go off? Were you messing with it?

S- That's what I'm trying to figure out.

D- I mean, I know you had it.

S- The whole time we were arguing, I would remember that she said, if a gun went off, she would have said something. You know what I'm saying if they found a round that went through a wall that matches that, that's impossible. It's impossible. I never even played with the gun in the house like that. She's got a 17 year old son. I kept it up under the bed. Do you know what I mean?

D- Maybe we'll try to work towards that? When did the gun get to the apartment? How long had it been there.

S- About a month probably.

D- And she's known about it the whole time? Today wasn't the first day she learned of it?

S- She knew about it though. She knew about it. It was just, I started selling weed and individuals that knew her said, this is where I got the gun. A mother fucker said he gonna rob me. I went and got me something for my door and I had it for if you come in my house, I'm gonna shoot you. I'm not going to go out of my way. So when we're arguing, I just took the gun. I'm gonna go to my dad's but at the same time I'm not, I never even fired the gun off.

D- But what I'm trying to understand is, why did you decide to take the gun to your dad's, if you're selling weed out of that apartment right?

S- I'm not there. That's why. I'm leaving. We're arguing. I'm leaving so I'm fixing to take the gun up at my dad's house. I'm gone. She don't barely want it up in there. You see what I'm saying. That's the whole ordeal of me getting that because she introduced me to an individual that wanted to buy some weed from me and then he said he was going to rob me. That's why I got the gun so you know what I mean. He'll be on crystal or whatever, whatever his drug of choice is. He does bad, you know what I mean. He said he's gonna rob me. I got to protect myself. Straight up. I'm not going to sugar coat it or nothing like that.

D- I appreciate that you're not. I'm just trying to get to the bottom of it. Even if it helps you or hurts you, I'm just trying to find out the facts, make sure it all makes sense in the end. That's what I'm trying to do.

S- I know man.

D- When did you get it then, a month?

S- About a month.

D- Obviously you can't buy it because you're a felon. Did you get it just off the street?

S- You know. Of course I did.

D- Or did someone buy it for you?

S- Na.

D- That's what I'm getting at.

S- I bought it. You know what I mean.

D- Nothing happened where her son found it recently and she got pissed off about that?

S- Na, when I got it I told him about it. Man I got this in the house. He's 17. Don't touch this.

D- But he's old enough to take to a range?

S- Ya. He's like no, I'm not gonna touch it. He's into school and plays soccer and all that man. It ain't even like that man. It truly ain't. I'm sitting here trying to figure out all this shit.

D- Me too. It's a lot harder when you're just looking at the evidence and other people's statements and not having you to talk to.

S- I don't know how a round went off in her house. No round went off. I didn't shoot nothing.

D- Did you have it out of the case in the house tonight?

S- Na. I keep it on safety I told you when I'm in the house. I got a thing up under my door. One of those 20 12 guage that goes up under the door knob. If a mother fucker tries kicking my door, he's not coming through. I'm a paranoid type of mother fucker. I'm not going to be playing with no gun like that man. One of them bullets will take off your arm, you know what I'm saying? I know you would die. That's not nothing to play with right there so straight up, I'm not fixing to, you know what I'm saying. I'm a street dude but at the same time I'm not gonna go out of my way to bring no harm to nobody. I'm not going to do all that but if you try to harm me, ya, I'm gonna protect myself.

D- This is what I'm trying to get to is 1) I believe it went off tonight and either you're not remembering it correctly because from what she's saying.

S- Excuse me. That mother fucker couldn't have went off in the house. I would know (pointed at ear).

D- You're not remembering stuff. Ya, it would hurt your ears. You're right.

S- And she would have said something, you let off a shot so I'm sitting here, like hold on. Where did the shot came from? Straight up, that's what I'm trying to figure right now. I'm not sitting here lying to you. What time is the shots happen? Man, for real.

D- A couple of minutes before you took off in the car and then the gun went off again, according to you.

S- Wow, she didn't call me or nothing to say nothing. Man I didn't let no shot off in the house.

D- I don't think she had the opportunity to call you because we had you in custody shortly after, within minutes.

S- No, I'm just saying. I didn't let no shot off in the house, straight up. I know that for a fact man.

D- Here's the other thing. I know the officer that was out there and I know him to be an honest person, that you came out with it at the car. Now he was honest and he said you didn't fire at him but he saw you get out with it.

S- Oh, okay.

D- And I have no reason to doubt him from past experience and you also didn't fire so I'm just trying to get you to refresh your memory about exactly how you put that gun.

S- I'm trying to think.

D- Because it was when the officer got there for sure because he saw you with it.

S- I didn't even know. I'm sitting here and you got me thinking hell a shit right now, like man. A shot went off, how a shot went off. The car situation, I know that went off on it's own but in the house, I didn't shoot that gun. I wish I could go look at, where? You know what I mean? Honest to God truth. For a bullet to go past her head, I had to hold it like this towards her (shows a level two handed shooting position).

D- The barrel would have to be her direction for sure.

S- I'd have to aim it at her. We wasn't arguing like that man. On my momma, it wasn't like that. We wasn't even on debate. She was mad at me because I popped a pill so I was, man whatever, do whatever. I'm not listening to you, you're mad. That don't got no reason for me to go ahead and draw no gun and that's gonna hum. That's a murder. How the fuck do I look like, killing my girl, man it's over.

D- I'm not trying to stretch this into something it ain't. Sometimes guys just get pissed off, hey shut up, shut up.

S- I've only been with her 7, 8 months.

D- The first homicide I went to, the very first one, the guy stayed there. He stabbed his girl, he admitted to it, like 17 times, not because she did anything major that day but that day I think she called him bitches and called him boy and he broke on boy but the repeated day after day after day, it breaks you down. It wears you down.

S- I mean, it does, you know what I mean.

D- It does. There's some logic to it. People can wear other people down. You look at all the domestic violence murders, that's what happens. Now you didn't murder anybody but something happened in your apartment and your not quite there.

S- I told you everything. I'm telling you we didn't fight.

D- Did she fire it and make it up because she doesn't want to get in trouble.

S- I don't think, man. You're telling me right at, the timing.

D- If it was right at her, you would have hit her. You and me both know that you could have hit her if you wanted to hit her.

S- No, I'm saying if the bullet hummed by her, she would have told me.

D- You would think but she just stormed out. Maybe she's afraid. If somebody purposely or accidentally shot, now me, I'd be shooting.

S- If I shot at her, she could have ran and knocked on somebody's door immediately.

D- True.

S- Call on your cell phone and call the police immediately if I shot and the bullet went past you. That's basically saying I tried to kill you and you're gonna sit there.

D- If you're leaving, she doesn't have to leave.

S- She left before me and then I left but it's still the issue at hand that you're saying I shot the gun and did you call the police? Did you do any of that? We ain't going through Perry Mason right now but I'm saying I know I didn't fire the gun.

D- No, it's not Perry Mason but there's things that we can prove, that you did fire a gun, like they did a test on you at the hospital and it measures the amount of gunshot residue and they've done tests at the labs obviously because people do shootings and they say a lot of things and they can test how many particles are in a certain area to say that, some guy tells us oh I was just in the car because you've got drive by's with 4 or 5 deep. They can figure out who the shooter is by how many particles because of all the studies so I'm assuming that they're going to tell us, hey, you know what? This guy said it just went off accidentally but the amount of particle dispersion, you know he fired that.

S- I mean, fired what? How am I gonna get in a wreck and just start letting off a gun?

D- I don't know. Here's the other part I can't understand and you are helping me to understand all right, is, you had it on safety. It's in a case. It's in the house. We get you. It's no longer on safety. It's no longer in a case. It's no longer in the house so you manipulated that thing to take it out of the case even though you're just driving over to your dad's. There's not really a reason to have one out except maybe to shoot it. You know how to keep them safe and you know that that's the safest way to keep it, correct?

S- I took it off safety, you know what I mean, because I'm leaving. I was riding anyway. You know what I mean?

D- No, because that's the safest way to carry it.

S- Ya.

D- So I think that you purposely fired it. Now I don't know if you purposely fired at anybody. You tell me how you purposely fired this thing. Otherwise, it's just all bullshit. What were you doing? Blowing off steam or what? I don't know.

S- I was blowing off steam when I got in the wreck.

D- That takes away your steam because the airbag went off.

S- It was just going to sit and the fact, like I said, my girl's acting funny man. You know what I mean, straight up.

D- I've heard that before and I've seen it.

S- It wasn't that I, you know what I mean. I just like, I took it off safety because at the same time, the simple fact, I don't leave the house at night. When dude sat there and said he was going to rob me and he called later and told me what apartment number I was in so of course now I get in the car by myself, I'm gonna take it off safety, you know what I mean? If a mother fucker try to slide up on me, I'm gonna shoot him. I'm not gonna sugar coat it. Man you can call and ask her, none of this shit. I'm not gonna sit here and bullshit you man, I mean you're gonna put what charges you're gonna put and the DA but the truth will show that, you know what I mean that I didn't fire no gun.

D- I only want to put the charges that fit and if I think you really screwed up, I'm gonna do those charges that are appropriate for that. I mean, I think you really screwed up. I think you meant to shoot. I don't know what you meant to shoot at because otherwise you're telling me that, otherwise, what you're saying is that you are a felon. Every time you get in the car and hit the streets, you're carrying a gun off safety. That's what you're telling me.

S- No, not like that. See this is really the first time I took it out of the house like that, see, we argued.

D- That's too convenient for tonight, you know, and then everything goes wrong the one night that I happened to take it off safety, that's the night that I get in a wreck and it accidentally went off.

S- What am I gonna do man. If you look at the trigger on that mother fucker you can tap that mother fucker and it's gonna go off.

D- Right, so why would you take it off safety if you know it's that sensitive?

S- I didn't know.

D- Yes, you had already shot at that apartment. The ballastic thing is going to prove that. There's nothing that I have to do or anything. They do the test and they're going to fire another one from your gun and either it matches or it doesn't but based on what we're told already by all the neighbors around, by your girl, by us finding the gun, I believe that that's going to be enough to convict you of firing that gun in that apartment. What I'm trying to figure out is do I have enough to convict you of firing at her. Did you want to kill her? What was going on right then? Were you trying to pop off a round to get her to shut up. That happens. I'm not so naive that girl's can't make a guy that mad. I'm not. That it has nothing to do with wanting to kill somebody or whatever but it went off in the apartment toward her. It didn't hit her. Now I'm not so naive that if you wanted to point it at her head and pull the trigger then she would be dead.

S- Man she left the apartment before I even grabbed the thing.

D- No. She said that you shot in the apartment so she knows and she didn't come back there until after we got back and she knew where it hit, where it hit on the wall.

S- In where? Where in the house?

D- By the bedroom?

S- The bedroom where? Where did it go off in the bedroom?

D- I don't know. I just know the master bedroom, she was by the door.

What I did like this (motions to the side in a squeezing of gun grip motion) playing with the gun like this and all that. I wasn't doing none of that.

S- She gave them to me. I said I'm going to my dad's. Can you give me a ride to my dads. Here, take them, wu-d-wu-wu-wu. I don't want the keys. You see that she had her house keys. She took the house keys off. She had the house keys. I didn't have the house keys so I was leaving, you see what I'm saying. I didn't have the house keys. She had the house keys.

D- So she separated the house keys from them?

S- And gave them to me.

D- So normally they stay together?

S- I mean, that's what normal people do, if you've got a car you're gonna put your house keys on. She took it off.

D- And she probably will get kicked out. That's just a reality now.

You wouldn't have gave me the keys to the car. You would have ran to somebody's house. If you left the house before, that's all in the middle. You can look at the thing. They got a camera. D- But here's what she said. Now I don't think she would ever want to have you prosecuted. She wants to be with you but she said tonight you demanded the keys which maybe you did, maybe you didn't. Normally, they give me the keys is a normal thing but you're holding the gun in your hand.

S- No, look. She got this thing where she don't want me to leave. She thinks I'm gonna fuck other bitches, doing that so that's why she didn't want to give me the keys. Man give me the keys. D- No, because you were going to get the keys so you're just walking around toting it.

S- No, I didn't just hold it like that.

D- Going give me the keys, give me the keys. What do you think people that see this are going to think.

S- No, I didn't tote it like that. The car door was already unlocked. It was in the front. We parked in the front. We usually park in the back. The car door, some type of way was already she was like, I'm not taking you to your dad's, wu-d-wu this and you're gonna go to your baby's mom's or just hella (unintelligible) shit. Here, you know what I will do then. Let me go drive your car. I'll go take myself. I just did. It wasn't like that man. I'm telling you, if it was like that, a mother fucker would have put a domestic violence dispute on me and all that. I'm not sitting here, gonna do all that for a woman to love me. Like for real. I'm sitting here wondering. I was high on pills though but I don't do that shit. I was more paranoid to have my thing with me of where this event (unintelligible) so my girl didn't have nothing to do with it. That's basically how I was feeling but I wasn't tripping on her like that. When I get off a pill I'm a more, how do I say it. I don't be loud. I'm calm. I'm cautious of things. I'm not gonna sit here and argue with you. I'm not gonna sit here and do that. That's basically how I am and she knows that so she'll tell you everything.

D- So what was her malfunction tonight? Why would she care if you're on pills if you're a calm pill taker?

S- She don't want me getting high. If you're in a relationship, she don't want you to do drugs or you want me to consult you when I get ready to get high. I didn't consult you and tell you I'm gonna get some pills. I just did my thing without consulting her so she felt this loyalty trust thing in the relationship and that's how it was. It was a disagreement. She's been irritated all day with some of this shit as in I don't want to do this and arguing about this or doing that and she knows. I'm not no mother fucker that's stuck with no bitch man, straight up. I'm a real mother fucker. I'm not going to do nothing to no bitches. One girl I put my hands on, baby's momma one time and I ain't did it. If you look at my record, that was my first love. I'm over that. But to sit there and dwell on what a broads doing. She gonna fuck and she gonna do what she gonna do regardless but I didn't try to harm her and the gun going off, I don't know. If it went off, I don't even know how it went off.

D- Let me make sure I got this straight because you're mixing two different ladies here. You're talking about a girl trying to fuck.

S- No, she's assuming I'm in the game. I sell weed. Okay a woman want to fuck me. She's in my face so that's what she's assuming that I just be, I mean, I got caught cheating so now that door's open but I hadn't been cheating so I'm like, man, basically, you're getting mad at a mother fucker and a mother fucker ain't doing nothing. You make me want to go do something. Do you know what I mean? So at the same time, we had this little thing that we go back and forth on but it's not really nothing. No putting no hands on or nothing like that but it's I'll just pack my clothes up and leave and go to my dad's so her whole thing is she don't want me to leave but at the same time she was mad tonight. She don't really care. I know she loves me. I'm confused right now. How did the gun go off? I mean for real. I aimed the gun at you? She said a bullet went by her head? For a bullet to go, she's about 5'8" or 5'7", but my height about right here (hand to eye level), do you know what I mean. For a gun round to pass her, to go by her head?

D- Remember you're sitting on the bed. You're not standing.

S- I'm sitting like this so the gun.

D- I haven't been in the apartment so you're sitting at the bed holding it having this conversation. How far away is the door?

S- About 12 to 14 feet but I'd have to hold it up though but I wasn't even playing like that.

D- I don't know where that hit the wall or anything yet. That'll come out later.

S- But I'm not going to play with no gun man. That shit'll go through walls. I know. But I'm trying to figure out how? Where? That's what I'm tripping on.

D- When you had the gun at your house, did you keep it fully loaded?

S- Ya. Why?

D- Because at the car crash, there's 7 casings and 1 round. At your apartment, there's one round so we're missing.

S- No.

D- I'm just telling you. If it's fully loaded, it's a 10 round clip.

S- The dude that I bought it from gave me 11 rounds.

D- So there might be two missing.

S- Was it in there?

D- I don't know. I didn't go there. I've haven't talked to the people that have. Some people have worked on this, have booked their evidence, and have gone home for the day because you were in the hospital for a long time. When they treated you, you had some dehydration and so they wanted to make sure you were going to be okay first of all and so those people have gone home and all this will get combined and sent over to the District Attorney and will get to you eventually. You know how that goes.

S- I know. This is some serious ass shit man.

D- It is serious but it's the difference I would say on the first one, is this an accident or is this assault with a deadly weapon?

S- It's making it look like I was on some just mad at the world type shit or something.

D- Maybe you were. People have those days.

S- I wasn't.

D- You didn't have that bad a day, I mean we've seen it on the news so in the scope of what a man can do, if you were really angry and had a horrible day, what happened today, nobody got hit, shot, whatever. You agree with me that you made mistakes?

S- If I did something, I'm old enough and I know the consequences. That's 85 percent right there. A strikeable offense. I don't do none of that. All the shit that took place. I'm just telling you this. I don't do none of that. I don't go out of my way to rob nobody. None of that. I got a T number. I've been in and out of the pen for 10 years for selling drugs. This right here, that's not me. I didn't try to do none of that. I wasn't letting no gun off at the police. None of that shit.

D- It's in your hands in the apartment when it goes off.

S- I don't even know how it went off. I would have heard it. I would admit saying it was an accident.

D- I got into a shooting. When I got into a shooting, when you're in any kind of confrontation, it can be little to big depending on, your adrenaline goes up and when your adrenaline goes up, you gain some perception and you lose some so blood goes away. When I got into a shooting, I could not hear it and to me when it went off, it sounded like a .22 but that's just a physiological thing that happens.

S- Something ain't right man. I'm trying to figure out where the round went off and when I caught back up with her when she stormed out the door, the car was unlocked. I threw the thing in there. I needed the keys. She didn't say nothing to me about no round. She didn't say nothing to me, her son, nobody said nothing to me. She would have called my mom, my mom or my dad would have called.

D- She did call your mom.

S- Then what did my mom say. My mom didn't call my phone.

D- She didn't call your phone, you're right because you were arrested within minutes. That's what I'm telling you. Nobody had the opportunity because you were arrested. It's now, it's 4:30 in the afternoon. The next day. You've been in the hospital sleeping for several hours. After this happened, you were arrested almost right away, within for sure 10 minutes so there's no opportunity for people to call you. I'll bet when we check your call phone logs, people have called you.

S- Man, I'm not gonna sit here. I could have ran. I could have bounced out of that car before the police came. I could have got further. Why would I sit there and just wait. I'm a criminal. I need you to look at that though sir. I'm a criminal. Why am I gonna sit in the car and let off some rounds when I just shot over here and shot over there.

D- I don't know what you're thinking. Sometimes you have a real bad day. The airbag exploded in your face so I don't know how clearly or unclearly you're thinking. That part, when you didn't shoot at the officer, I appreciate that and nobody's gonna make up that you did shoot at him but nobody's gonna make up that you didn't fire that round at the apartment either, when you did. They're not gonna. So I'm asking you, and I think you know that you're just holding back to yourself.

S- I'm not man. If I shot a round I'd let you know. I swear to God I didn't fire no round. You can ask her son. Babe, your telling me I sat there and pointed a gun at you and it went by your head without you even saying nothing. She would have jumped in her car and drove off before I came out.

D- But listen, when you got to the car, the car doors were open. Why? Because she was going to get in her car but then you came and took her keys and left in her car.

S- I didn't take her keys. She started walking.

D- No, she was going to her car. That is why the car doors were opened already because who lives on Stonecreek and leaves their car doors open? Honestly.

S- No. Listen, we park in the back. We pulled up to the front because we already was getting ready to leave again. I'm getting ready to take somebody some weed. We was getting ready to leave again so that didn't have nothing to do with her parking the car. We usually park in the back. They got tow away signs all up there. If you park in an unauthorized spot your car will be towed by the time the manager person wakes up in the morning.

D- If that's true, nobody's told me that they found weed. Where did the weed go?

S- I threw that shit. What do you mean? I been threw it up in the apartments. I wasn't fixing to go get.

D- So you kept the gun that would get you in a lot of trouble but you threw out a little bag of weed?

S- No man, what do you mean a little bag of weed.

D- Was it a lot of weed?

S- No, it was just like a little something for $30.

D- So that's not a lot. You and me both know that's not a lot.

S- It wasn't nothing for me to keep. I'm sitting here like fuck it man (makes tossing motion left) driving. What do I really need it for? I'm not gonna bullshit you.

D- It's not all coming together like it makes total sense to me.

S- I'm not gonna sit here and bullshit you. You can call and ask her man. I'm not gonna bullshit you. If I had weed, they would have found it. I've got a two year mother fucking lid over my head for prop 36. I'm not playing out there, for a drug case.

D- I'm pretty sure they'd violate that same case for a gun so you would've thrown that.

D- I know but you're talking about penalty for this little thing when the penalty for the gun is much more as far as years.

S- But I was almost done. I only got like 6 classes left. I wasn't, I know you can get years for a gun but I don't got nothing going on at my house. I don't have people just popping up there or doing nothing. That's not my parole address. You know what I mean so none of that so of course I had a gun but I had a decision in making. We both, I didn't need no gun. I'm not in the streets like that but a mother fucker threatened me. That's why I got a gun. I've been with her for seven months she'll tell you. I ain't never had a gun around her except a month ago I just bought that and ask her why and she'll tell you the same thing. I ain't gonna lie to you.

D- Who's the guy that threatened to rob you?

S- It don't matter.

D- Really, because he put enough pressure on you that you got a gun and now you're facing years and so.

S- But me telling you his name is not gonna do nothing.

D- How do you know? You don't know what I'll do with it. I may run with it. I seek out the truth and then go make justice happen.

S- How? How are you going to seek out justice?

D- How do cops usually do that? They go find people that are robbing, stealing and they put them in prison.

S- And then what?

D- We go investigate him.

S- Why?

D- Because he's a criminal. That's what police do.

S- I understand that man. At the same time, you're asking me to tell.

D- Right, I'm asking you to tell.

S- You're asking me to snitch and then when it's all said and done, I gotta be like this (looking over each shoulder) and my name comes out. I look at the standards of the game. If you're doing certain things in the streets and you can't do the time, get out of the way. I know you've got a job to do. looking for him and do all this and I don't even deal with him. I don't call him or nothing like that. I understand what you're saying.

D- You've got to think about long term. You're thinking about time inside and I know how it goes. You don't want to, unless you already want protective custody on the inside. Most people don't. You lose privileges.

S- Telling on a mother fucker for something like that, that's small. He told my girl he was going to jack me.

D- Why did he tell your girl when she's with you?

S- Because that's supposed to be her brother, her play brother, and we were arguing at that time. We were separated for 2 days. She picked him up, smoked some weed and he told her he was gonna rob that fool. She said you was gonna rob him and that's my dude. I mean she me though. And then when he was in the car he picked up the magazine with the address and told her he knew where we stayed and so I had to go defend myself. I wasn't gonna let a mother fucker just come in my house and kick in my door and pistol whip me or shoot me and I'd be part of the statistics. I'm not gonna lie to you. That's what the gun was for.

D- Just so that we're both on the same page though, you agree that what he did was a cause and effect thing of what you did and so you're giving him a pass. That's on you to do.

S- I mean ya. No, you can consider it a pass. I don't know but I'm just saying, don't come to my house. I'm not fucking with you. That's how you gotta keep it. Like if I go out and my girl, ya, I was mad like you showed this and this and this and this dude is talking about this and this but at the same time, like she said, we talked about the situation that she felt upset because he told her that. That's why I had it in the house but at the same time I'm not gonna play with no gun. I'm not gonna try to harm nobody.

D- You did play with a gun tonight though. That's the reality is you did. You know a safer way to handle it.

S- Ya. Now I'm sitting here confused though, for real sir. I could sit there and say ya, I let the gun off on accident in the room. I could have said that. I was cocking it, anything and this happened. I could have said it. I don't even know where the bullet hole went. Honest to God. That's why I'm confused like you. I picked the shit up and all that? I'm not knowing. You got to think of my point of view of thinking. How am I gonna get off a gun and leave the shell at my house?

D- We'll leave that one because you obviously don't remember or don't know how that one got shot.

S- Man I was high. I was high. I was on pills. I wasn't drunk-drunk but I was still moving around but I didn't, man, I would know if that mother fucker went off man. I don't know. That's why I asked you when you said, I know it will hold 10. Dude gave me 11 bullets when I bought it. That's how an extra one was in the case and I'm like, well how many bullets was left? Was the shell casing at my house, I'm not gonna leave no shell casing. Anything that would jeopardize my house, I got scales up in there. I would have took all that out. I don't know if the police found it but you got to think like me though.

D- I do except the shell casing was missing or as far as I know, but we found a live round at the house. So somebody hid the shell casing. Somebody took that out of there. That's number one but you can't get rid of that hole and bullet that goes to the next thing so somebody was thinking about stuff left behind.

S- Wow. But I'm saying why would you do all that and leave the case up under there, the extra bullet right there.

D- I don't know but if you're not thinking clearly because of drugs or whatever but you said you were mainly coherent?

S- Ya, I'm saying if my gun went off I would have heard it. That mother fucker will ring your ears and it's gonna kick. It won't be just no bull, you know what I mean. I'm trying to figure it out.

D- Aside from that one, you're saying that the gun went off accidentally inside the car and there's more than one witness that was out there that said that you fired, you got out of the car and began firing it after the crash.

S- Hell no, I didn't get out of the car and start firing. Was the shell casings in the car or outside the car? They're inside the car and that shows that the gun had to be going off in the car.

D- Maybe. They got ejected into the car for sure.

S- How can they be popped back into a car?

D- If your windows are down or, but I don't know the condition of the car.

S- It was on the passenger side. The gun, the mother fucker was moving. So it's moving while I'm driving. On the front seat. That's where it was. I'm telling you something there hit the trigger that's on the floor or something and I'm sitting here in the back seat and they didn't go off in the back seat. It's in the front seat. I'm willing to bet, ain't no shell casings went outside that car so I don't know.

D- So I don't believe that a trigger gets pulled accidentally 7 times.

S- I didn't even know it was 7 times it went off.

D- But I'm telling you there were 7 casings. I told you that earlier. I didn't lie. And one live round and I don't believe and you don't believe with handling guns with your experience that it would accidentally go off.

S- I don't even know if it was 7 rounds that went off though. I'll tell you the truth.

D- What I think is it was in your hands. I don't know if you're shooting at somebody but I think you got pissed off this morning. That's what I think. That's the bottom line. Does that equal an extra charge? No. But that's just what the truth I believe is. I'm trying to make sure that all these people, that I don't have it wrong and you intended to kill somebody and the accidental thing doesn't add up and the fact is it's going to be proven in court that you purposely fired this. They can prove it by gunshot residue on your hands. They can do it by the trajectory of the bullets. Our armorer can check that gun and make sure it's not malfunctioning. They look at the trigger. They see how many pounds of pull that takes. They look at if it's ever been set where the sear pin has been fixed to make it fully automatic or anything like that and if all those things don't equal it going off accidentally then it wasn't an accident. I'm not saying it's premeditated. It happened right then and there. What did you do? Why did you grab it? Where did you shoot it? What did you shoot it at?

S- I didn't try to grab it and shoot it. I didn't shoot it outside of that car man. There was a car there. I just got in a wreck. What do I look like letting a car off and then shooting into the next car right there.

D- I didn't say you shot into the next car.

S- No I'm just saying why would I even try to shoot the gun in the next cars right there. I'm crashed, and I'm just gonna sit in the car-pow-pow and letting off shots and wait 'til the police come?

D- I don't know. That's what people are telling us.

S- I didn't do all that man.

D- Did you want the cops to come?

S- No. If I want the cops to come I would have ran from the police. I'm truly confused sir. My mind is fucked up.

D- The only thing I asking you to tell me is the truth of how it went off.

S- I been telling you the truth.

D- And what was going through your mind when it happened?

S- Shit.

D- When people look at this, they're gonna go, either that makes sense or man that guy is completely full of shit because it couldn't happen that way. It's gonna be the evidence that I look at and everybody else is gonna look at, whether that gun could have malfunctioned that way. And that stuff.

S- I might have let off one round when I grabbed it but I know I didn't, I didn't shoot no six rounds. I didn't sit there and try to shoot the gun and look how far I took the gun from the car and got it up out of there. I could have ran and got further with the gun.

D- I know there's a lot of stuff you could have done and I'm saying I appreciate that you didn't shoot or you didn't pull the trigger at that officer or whatever and I appreciate that he gets to go home. At the end of the day, I'm glad that he missed you if you weren't trying to hit him.

S- I didn't even know he shot at me. You said that, man. I don't know man. I don't know if my mind was on block like blacked out. I don't know if I was in a daze after the wreck. I didn't shoot no gun. For me to get in a wreck and wake up and just start shooting.

D- I think you were angry. Did you think the wreck was your fault?

S- I wasn't mad like that.

D- I would be. Your girl's car was totalled. I'm saying there's a reason people get that mad. I'm not saying you're a murderer because you could have murdered someone tonight and you didn't. That's not in your heart right?

S- Man, I'm facing some time for some bullshit.

D- You are facing some time but it's not for bullshit. It's for bad mistakes that you made.

S- No, I'm saying it's bullshit either way it goes. It's mistakes.

D- Irregardless, if all the other people are believed and it adds up to the worst case scenario, or if it adds up to the best case scenerio that you are saying which is possession by a felon, and all that stuff. The difference in time isn't a huge difference, I believe. There would be if we jumped up to attempted murder or something like that. That would be a big jump but the difference from what they're saying and from what you're saying, I don't believe is as big a jump. Nobody is out there accusing you of being on a murderous rampage or anything close to that. They are accusing you of purposely pulling the trigger. I'm just trying to understand why, what's going through your head. Are you purposely trying to do something, anything towards society. That's what we're here to find out or is this somebody who needs to, you know, we both know there's gonna be some type of punishment and it's probably gonna be some time in prison irregardless of which story. You shouldn't have had the gun in the first place. It shouldn't have gone off. It never would have gone off if you didn't have it. A lot of bad things happened tonight because you do drugs and alcohol.

Hopefully you understand I'm not trying to stretch it into something it's not. I'm trying to get you to keep thinking about it to get you to remember.

S: No it's not. I tried to get a job. If it's a roadblock and a barrier, I'm not going to be homeless. I'm gonna make sure I'm secure. My family is secure. What's the difference. California want to tax money for weed. They want their cut on it, really though. It's some real serious stuff. You might think it's not right. I know it's not right but at the end of the day and you can't get no job, what are you going to do? When you apply yourself and there's steady obstacles and roadblocks for you, what are you gonna do? You know there's consequences behind this, but you're still gotta live and bills are coming in and things gotta be done. That's a reality. I just can't say, go to a job and show em' a stack of bills, I need help. I need a job.

D: And I'm saying I understand that. I haven't lived that life but I've seen it enough to know that there's a lot of young intelligent me that are smart enough, that did other things that are mistakes but can't get out of that cycle. And I know they're intelligent and it's not something where they go, hey let me do this because it's fun. You do it because you have to.

S: No, I mean I know what you're saying. Some people play with it.

D: That's mostly the youngsters, but once you've been to the pen.

S: No, I can't say being to the pen because I know people that never been to the pen that's under with it but it's about a person that wants to live and wants more in life. You know this ain't correct right here. It's not right but at the same time you're gonna do it with precaution so you can put food on your table, so you can feed your kids, so you can put clothes on your back and at the same time you can stop and ease up your brakes and go look for jobs. I know the difference. I could go get a regular 9 to 5 and then she doing the same stuff is a little bit longer. It's gonna take a little bit longer of getting right here. I don't have to be like this, worrying about somebody jacking me, worrying about me going to jail. I understand all that, you know what I mean. It don't have nothing to do with that, me and my girl fighting. We ain't never had no, we had fights but we've never had no fights where I pull no gun or start shooting on some berserk rounds, man, I was with my son's mom 7 years and I ain't never did no shit like that and I've only been with her 7 months. I'm keeping it real.

D: Here's why she's saying she's mad tonight. She's saying she's mad because you showed up with that gun and she couldn't get you to put it down. That you're agitated tonight.

S: I showed up with the gun?

D: Ya.

S: We had the gun there. My dad is my witness but she could put it any way that she want to put it there because she's trying to secure her little household or whatever. I respect that though. I didn't just show up there with no gun. The gun has been there. My dad will verify that for you.

D: Why do you have the gun out to where she got mad about it tonight?

S: What do you mean she got mad about it? She wasn't mad about the gun. She was mad about me being high off the pills I told you because I didn't consult her and tell her I'm getting high. Remember I told you that? She got mad because I chose to take some pills and I didn't consult her. That's the whole argument was over. You know she's driving me to go do drops and she getting in her business and she's getting irritated, you know what I mean? That's how the night went. You were mad. I'm not mad. You're mad at me. I'm not trippin'. What for? You see another bitch in my face, what I'm gonna get mad for? You're the one get mad because some bitch is smiling in my face but I'm like man, I'm not tripping on that broad but she don't see it that way. When you cheated in your past, you'll always cheat. That's how the argument went on top of me, I go get high because you're talking shit. I go do me. Fuck what you're going through and I mean it wasn't about no, man, she didn't, I got clothes there. She didn't tell me to get out and pack my clothes. None of that, if it was really that serious.

D: Let me throw this at you then. I'll try to put it as gently as I can towards your girl so what you're telling me basically is that your girl not lied on everything that happened but lied on why this happened.

S: Lied what happened?

D: She said it happened over this gun, you showed up with a gun. So you're saying she lied about that and it was really about pills. That's what your true argument was. She never mentioned the gun or got mad about no gun.

S: But see, she gonna sugar coat it, whatever she gonna sugar coat it with because she probably ain't gonna make it involving drugs of the situation and make it a gun. It was the fact of the matter of that. It wasn't that I showed up with no gun. The gun in there. I just told you, I showed her son, said this is in here, wu-wu, don't touch this. He's 17. He'll understand because her partner said he was going to jack me. Her play brother. I told you that's why I got the gun.

D: And I'm not saying that I'm doubting you right now. I'm a little frustrated with your girl right now for lying to another detective.

S: It is what it is, you know. She know that what transpired was, man, I didn't let off no gun but at the same time, funny shit been happening so I don't know. I'm getting my money. I ain't really been giving her money to spend. I'm trying to go get me a new car. I'm trying to do this. It's just like we had an argument. Are you for me or are you against me? Do you have my back? Is you down for me? I'm in the mix of this. You ain't doing shit though. When it's all said and done I'm gonna be behind the glass and be going back. You're not in the mix of this. I'm keeping it real and letting you know.

D: I guess what I'm asking, because you're being accused of shooting this gun that you say you don't remember.

S: Exactly.

D: Do I need to send somebody over there to the apartment to test her hands to see if she fired that gun tonight.
Did she fire that gun?

S: I don't even know the times, I'm asking you whatever.

D: The time is right before you get stopped. It's all within minutes.

S: That's crazy.

D: Everything runs together. That's how we even get officers going toward that direction.

S: I don't even know man. She didn't even say nothing. She would have said something to me when I got the keys. I didn't have the keys before all that with the gun. I'm like, with the gun?

D: Like I said, the gunshot residue is, I'm assuming, I'm pretty secure in the fact that it's going to show that you fired the gun tonight and you're agreeing that you could have in grabbing it may have let off one.

S: Holding it, it could have though. I'm not, but I would have been like man it went off, in the house. I would have known and a mother fucker would have ghost. I would have been. I would have been on the freeway somewhere. I'm sitting here confused. Like the gun went off. Then I just started shooting and then you all say I'm mad about it, we get in an argument like I was just on some fuck the world type shit, you know what I mean? I don't know. I'm mad right now. I'm sitting here like goddamn. I know the gun went off but I didn't know in the apartment, none of that. In the car ya, but I didn't sit there and go aim no gun at no car or nobody or did none of that. I swear to God. The mother fucker, when we wrecked, you can tap that mother fucker. It's semi-automatic. It's going to go. I'm not trying to sit here and sugar coat nothing. I'm more confused and hurt. She said a bullet went right by her head and she didn't say nothing. How are you not gonna say nothing. You didn't panic. You didn't do nothing.

D: I think she did panic. Would you say anything if a bullet just went by your head? She's not sure what your intentions are. I told you she's standing by you right but she's not saying that you tried to kill her but if the bullet goes by your head, does she know what your intentions are? She's probably thinking about that.

S: That's aiming though. If I didn't raise the gun and do nothing like this, I'm saying to threaten you. To do this or do that, I didn't do none of that. I'm like nigger I'm out of here, give me my thing (slang for gun). Fuck you. I'm bouncing.

S: I didn't see it. I would have heard it. The TV ain't that loud. Her son, he didn't hear. If he heard it, he would have, when we argued, she told her son, we're fixing to leave and then I said, no, I'm fixing to go and then she go outside but her son would have said something. He would have came and checked on his mom. If a gun went off. I've only been around 6 months. He's gonna check on his mom. That's her only child she got. If we have a dispute or argument he's gonna come check on his mom so I'm playing back all these scenarios in my head like, how did that all just take place and like that and then what you're telling me. Nobody didn't come to no hospital, my mom, my brother and them, nobody.

D: We don't let them come to the hospital though. You're in custody. You understand that.

S: They can still come to the hospital.

D: No. We would block them out.

S: How?

D: You're in custody.

S: I done have people come to the hospital before when I got shot.

D: When you're shot you're..

S: I know but I had a warrant too. The police were sitting right there.

D: Somebody must have allowed that but normally that's not. Tonight you were just a suspect. Nobody shot you. If you're solely a suspect, we're not going to let somebody come visit you. That's why nobody's there if you felt like somebody should have been there, we wouldn't have let them.

S: Not that I'm tripping over it. I'm mad about the whole thing.

S: It's sliding though. I just had it up on the seat post down like this. This is the seat right here.

D: Was it touching the back?

S: I don't think so. I kind of had to keep it lower or it'd be poking out. But I'm telling you the truth it was just wild.

S: There's a console.

D: The consoles in the middle. I'm talking about right here.

S: You mean the floor? Ya, I had, damn. What is up in there? She had a cup, shit, miscellaneous shit plus we had her rechargeable battery shit for her phone and extra wiring that come in for her radio that you stick in to the music but other than that, I don't know to alter it or anything. From when I crashed or anything because the air bag came out on that side too. I don't think it was. I don't know. I'm not gonna sit here and lie.

D: I think you are trying to lie. Let's say it's the best case scenario and the trigger is down here and let's say you even had a stick that happened to be right here in the trigger guard, right?

S: Ya.

D: Let's say it went off. It gets jostled right, boom. That makes the action go. It comes back on this side. It fires the bullet out. The casing ejects out the side. The next one comes forward.

S: I'm trying to say, where are the shell casings. I probably let one off, like I said, I probably let one off when I grabbed it but I was so panicked, threw it that it stayed like this. I didn't try to shoot the gun intentionally. Matter of fact, I don't know if he came to the car after the wreck.

D: Who?

S: The guy who wrecked. I don't even know how the wreck really happened.

D: I understand that you don't know how it happened but I don't understand that you're saying the gun just sat there and tat-tat-tat-tat-tat because that can't happen.

S: I didn't even, it let off seven rounds?

D: Ya, there's 7 casings in you're car unless you've been collecting casings for a while.

S: I didn't know 7 rounds went off.

D: Have you ever shot from that car before?

S: No. That got me trippin', 7 rounds. That's hella rounds.

D: That's a lot of rounds that didn't hit anybody or anything important but the bottom line is it's not 7 rounds that anybody including me is gonna believe you that you didn't know that it was going off because you're pulling the trigger and that's what the gun shot residue will show.

D: I'm just saying. That's going to be a fact that somebody is going to prove down the road and then they're just not going to believe anything from you. Now I think you had a bad day. D: You didn't kill anybody.

S: That's bad.

D: Just your story doesn't make sense about it accidentally going off.

I go out to the country and shoot. I go out with friends, release stress. I'm feeling that you have stress. I'm guessing that when you get in a wreck and you wreck your girl's car, you went under a lot of stress and I don't know. But people are going to understand there's a reason why these things happen. What they're not going to understand is a guy that just sits there and lies but you know, and then everything adds up later and oh really, these three people saw you do this and they did test your hands and they found this. Subject: DET. T. SHRUM FOLLOW UP

Related date/time: Apr-21-2012 (Sat.)

On 4/21/12, at approximately 0415 hours, I, Det. T. Shrum #362 (IV160) was called by Sacramento Police Communications to respond to an officer involved shooting at West El Camino Avenue at Dorine Way in Sacramento. I responded from my home and arrived at approximately 0452 hours.

When I arrived, the scene which was a large section of W. El Camino Avenue had been closed and entry into the area was restricted by police tape and patrol officers. I checked in with Officer Pennington who had been assigned as crime scene recorder.

I observed two cars on W. El Camino with major vehicle damage. The on call traffic investigation team was called to assist.

At 0510 hours, I attended a briefing by acting Sgt. Kiser #445 (1SM1) and he provided details regarding the incident known to him at that time. The suspect, Russell Grant Jr. 9/3/1982 was in custody and had been transported to the hospital. The suspect's rifle was secured in a patrol vehicle.

I was assigned to search the suspect's residence. I checked Sacramento County records and the records indicated that Grant was also known as (aka) Jerome Edward Grant. Grant is on formal searchable probation through 11/29/2016 and is on active parole. His address of record is [REDACTED]. Per County records, suspect Grant is a self-admitted [REDACTED].

I contacted Grant's parole officer, E. Contreras, via phone for information regarding the address for suspect Grant. Contreras advised me that the address of [REDACTED] is current and that the suspect lives with his father. Contreras stated that he had visited the apartment and the father had on occasion declined to allow agents entry when suspect Grant was not home. Contreras had searched the house previously and had not located any firearm or related item.

I requested assistance from patrol for a search of the suspect residence. Officer Giy, Officer Paiz, and Officer Elliott assisted me. At approximately 0650 hours, we went to [REDACTED] Alan Shepard St, apartment [REDACTED] and I knocked. [REDACTED] answered the door and I asked to come in to speak with him. I entered and explained that we were conducting a parole and probation search for his son and I took a recorded statement from [REDACTED].

Officer Giy, Officer Paiz, and Officer Elliott searched the apartment. Per [REDACTED], his son Russell laid his head down and had property in the bedroom of the one bedroom apartment. There was a small marijuana grow inside the bedroom that [REDACTED] claimed as his and he showed me medicinal marijuana paperwork for it. [REDACTED] also showed me scars on his abdomen and he indicated that he had a recent [REDACTED].

██████████ showed me the phone number ██████████ for suspect Grant's mother who had called ██████████ this morning regarding their son being arrested.

Officer Elliott located indicia in the single south bedroom addressed to Russell Grant Jr, ██████████ from ██████████ from Chino, Corona, Ca. I took photos of the apartment, the mail piece, and the medicinal marijuana paper for ██████████. I seized the mail as it was indicia and was confirmation that suspect Grant had been living at the apartment.

At approximately 0751 hours, I, Det. Shrum called ██████████ and took her recorded statement. She told me (summary) that she was called around 4 o'clock in the morning by her son Jr.'s girlfriend ██████████ who told her that Jr. had been in a high speed chase. ██████████ stated that she believed her son had mental problems that may be genetic. ██████████ initially said that ██████████ did not say anything about the suspect shooting but later stated that ██████████ mentioned that the gun went off in the apartment. ██████████ speculated that it was an accident since ██████████ didn't mention Jr. shooting at her. ██████████ stated that she never knew her son to have a gun.

I booked the letter to suspect Grant, a disk with the audio recorded statements of ██████████, and of ██████████, and a photo disk of photos I took at ██████████ Alan Shepard Street, apartment ██████████ into evidence at headquarters (HOJ).

At 1500 hours, I responded back to headquarters. Officer Hendrickson and Ofc. Carson had transported suspect Grant from UCD Hospital after he was medically cleared. I was given a sealed blood draw kit for suspect Grant.

Grant was brought in handcuffs and placed in an interview room. The handcuffs were exchanged for shackles and I interviewed suspect Grant. The interview was recorded to DVD. I mirandized Grant and took his statement. During the interview, Grant provided the pattern unlock for his cell phone which Det. Mello then took for analysis. During the interview Grant admitted to illegally obtaining a gun to protect himself from being robbed because he sells marijuana. Grant admitted taking ██████████ keys but at his request. Grant admitted to being under the influence of both alcohol and estacy pills and leaving his apartment with the rifle. Grant admitted that the gun fired and that he may have grabbed it causing one of the fired rounds. Grant denied exiting the car at the time Officer Surjan arrived and stated that he discarded the gun prior to that. Grant denied ever purposefully firing the rifle and explained that the rifle was loose on the front passenger area where it went off.

I allowed Grant to make a call from the interview room to his mother after the interview. CSI responded and photographed Grant. Grant claimed of no injuries from Sacramento Police.

Officer D. Montoya responded to HOJ to transport Grant to jail. I gave D. Montoya the sealed blood sample to book at County Jail. Grant was transported to jail.

I later booked the interview DVD of Grant into evidence.

On 4/30/12, I received cell phones seized in the investigation from Det. Sgt. Enriquez. They were the cell phone seized initially by CSI K. Vu (PR# 735812-4) and the cell phone initially seized by CSI T. Joseph (PR#

Part of my duties in this unit are to investigate gang related assaults, shooting into occupied residences / vehicles, and assisting the Homicide Unit with homicide investigations, suspicious death investigations, and officer involved shootings.

On 4-21-12, at 0422 hours, I received a telephone call from SPD Dispatch advising of a Homicide Call Out regarding an officer involved shooting at W. El Camino Ave / Dorine Ave. I responded to the scene and arrived at 0516 hours. The briefing was already underway being conducted by A/Sgt. Kiser. After the briefing was concluded, Sgt. Enriquez directed Det. [REDACTED] and I to make contact with the witnesses at [REDACTED] Greenlea Ave.

At 0537 hours, Det. [REDACTED] and I contacted [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] at the residence. [REDACTED] was also at the residence but initially refused to get up and talk to either Det. [REDACTED] or I. After several attempts by [REDACTED] to get [REDACTED] to come with us, [REDACTED] agreed to talk to a detective but refused to come to the police station for the interview. Det. [REDACTED] obtained [REDACTED]'s statement inside the residence (see supplement). While at the residence, [REDACTED] advised her friend [REDACTED] was also present when this incident occurred but had gone back to her residence. [REDACTED] advised she knew where [REDACTED] lived but did not know the address. [REDACTED] provided a cell phone number for [REDACTED] of [REDACTED]. I attempted to call [REDACTED] but there was no answer. [REDACTED] advised she would try to get a hold of [REDACTED] while Det. [REDACTED] drove them to SPD Central Station. If she could not get a hold of [REDACTED], [REDACTED] agreed to take us to [REDACTED] residence after the interview.

Det. [REDACTED] transported both [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] to SPD Central Station where I took [REDACTED] audio/video recorded statement. During the interview I used a Google Maps satellite photograph of the intersection and surrounding streets of W. El Camino Ave / Thelma Ave. I used this photograph to have [REDACTED] point out certain area's where specific things took place and where she was when she saw/heard specific things. I later booked a CD copy of the interview and satellite photograph shown to [REDACTED].

After the interview, [REDACTED] declined a cab ride home and called her mother to pick her up.

I responded out to [REDACTED] W. El Camino Ave and attempted to contact [REDACTED]. [REDACTED]'s mother stated he had gone to work and provided me with a cell phone number of [REDACTED] to contact [REDACTED] later. I passed this information on to Sgt. Chan and Sgt. Enriquez who advised there was no further follow-up for me to do at this time.

On 04-21-12 at approx. 0500 hrs. I arrived at West El Camino and Dorine Wy to assist with follow up on an officer involved shooting incident. I attended the briefing held by acting Sgt. Kiser (0445) then responded with Det. Saario to [REDACTED] Greenlea Wy to re-contact four witnesses. Upon arrival, both witnesses [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] agreed to accompany Det. Saario and myself to the Richards Police facility for an interview, however witness [REDACTED] was extremely apprehensive about any interview at a police facility or interaction with law enforcement, citing associations with individuals who would not like him talking to the police. Due to [REDACTED]'s uncooperative nature, I obtained an audio recorded statement at the residence before transporting [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] to the Richards Police facility.

After interviewing [REDACTED], I transported her back to the Greenlea address then responded to [REDACTED] Tourney Av to pick up witness [REDACTED] after she agreed to be interviewed at the Richards Police facility. After obtaining [REDACTED]' statement, I transported her back to Tourney Av.

While conducting interview with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED], I used an over head satellite map to identify two residences which may contain additional witnesses. After dropping [REDACTED] off at her house, I identified the two residences they pointed out as [REDACTED] West El Camino and [REDACTED] West El Camino.

I advised Sgt. Enriquez about the addition address and witness and he informed me that both the address had already been contacted and statements had been obtained.

I booked all recorded media interviews and the maps shown to [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] at the Hall of Justice.

I, Detective McCoy, am currently assigned to the Sacramento Police Department's Major Crimes Unit as a Homicide Detective. On 04/21/12 at approx 0410 hrs, I received a call at home from the Sacramento Police Department Communications Center of an officer involved shooting call out at West El Camino Ave / Dorine Way. I arrived on scene at approx 0500 hrs.

At approx 0510 hrs, I attended a briefing put on by A/Sgt Kiser. A/Sgt Kiser related the facts known to him at the time of the briefing.

In addition to the officer involved shooting, the suspect, Russell Grant, had been involved in a vehicle accident at the intersection of West El Camino Ave / Dorine Ave. Both vehicles (Toyota Camry , Honda ) sustained major damage and were still in the intersection. Russell Grant was identified as driving the Toyota Camry which is registered to . The driver and passenger of the Honda were both identified near the scene. At approx 0655 hrs, I contacted [REDACTED] at the Hall of Justice (5770 Freeport Blvd) inside interview room #1. I took a statement from [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] appeared to be downplaying the significance of what occurred in order to avoid implicating Russell Grant. She told me several times Russell Grant had an addiction problem. Additionally, [REDACTED] was concerned her statement would be used against Russell Grant. It should be noted the interview was recorded and is available upon request.

At approx 1030 hrs, I faxed a dispatch activity request (DAR) to the Sacramento Police Department Communications Center and to the California Highway Patrol Communications Center to obtain the 911 calls and radio traffic associated with this case.

Sgt Chan was in charge of both crime scenes in this case. Sgt Chan obtained [REDACTED]'s cell phone ([REDACTED]) from Officer Duckham. [REDACTED]'s cell phone was located on Russell Grant at the time of his arrest. Sgt Chan delivered [REDACTED]'s cell phone to the Electronic Crimes Unit (ECU). ECU downloaded [REDACTED]'s cell phone per her probation status. [REDACTED]'s cell phone was returned to her the same day.

On 04/23/12, I received a call from [REDACTED] regarding some of her personal property in the Toyota Camry. [REDACTED] specifically wanted her backpack (with her school books), earrings, and a debit card used for school.

On 04/24/12, I responded to Shanahans Towing and removed the above mentioned items from the Toyota Camry. I searched the backpack and found nothing of evidentiary value inside it. I delivered the items to [REDACTED] at her apartment. While at her apartment, [REDACTED] spoke briefly to me about the charges against Russell Grant. I referred [REDACTED] to the District Attorney's Office.

On 04/26/12, I reviewed the jail conversations between [REDACTED] and Russell Grant. The conversations were captured using the Inmate Calling Solutions (ICS) system at the Sacramento County Jail. The following is a summary of the conversations specific to this case;

04/21/12 1856 hrs / Call # [REDACTED] / [REDACTED] / Male Holding

This is a call between Russell Grant and [REDACTED]. During the 3rd minute of the conversation, [REDACTED] tells Russell Grant he shot the gun inside the bedroom before she ran out. During the 13th minute of the conversation, Russell Grant asked [REDACTED] if she picked up the shell (rifle casing) in the apartment. [REDACTED] tells Russell Grant the police found it.

04/21/12 1918 hrs / Call # [REDACTED] / ([REDACTED]) / Male Holding

This is a call between Russell Grant and [REDACTED]. During the 6th minute of the conversation, Russell Grant tells [REDACTED] he does not know why the gun went off in the apartment. [REDACTED] tells Russell Grant he had his hand on the trigger the entire time. Additionally, [REDACTED] tells Russell Grant he would not put the gun down. Russell Grant disputes [REDACTED] saying he did not have his hand on the trigger. [REDACTED] tells him he did. During the 9th minute of the conversation, Russell Grant tells [REDACTED] all the shell casings will be inside the car. Additionally, he states when he got out of the car, he threw the gun. During the 10th minute of the conversation, Russell Grant tells [REDACTED] he had his hands up when he got out of the car.

04/23/12 1251 hrs / Call # [REDACTED] / Social Visit / 8E-B

This is a social visit between Russell Grant and [REDACTED]. During the 4th minute of the conversation, Russell Grant and [REDACTED] are talking about a picture on [REDACTED]'s cell phone of a MBA holding what appears to be an assault rifle. Russell Grant denies the photograph is of him. [REDACTED] indicates the MBA is someone named "[REDACTED]". During the 6th minute of the conversation, Russell Grant tells [REDACTED] he passed out after the traffic accident. During the 7th minute, Russell Grant tells [REDACTED] he does not remember shooting the gun in the apartment. During the 11th minute of the conversation, [REDACTED] tells Russell Grant it was by the grace of God she was not shot. Russell Grant asked [REDACTED] if it (bullet) went by her. [REDACTED] tells Russell Grant she was standing right there. During the 14th minute of the conversation, Russell Grant and [REDACTED] begin to argue about Russell Grant not taking responsibility for his actions. During the argument, [REDACTED] tells Russell Grant she almost died and he almost died. During the 17th minute of the conversation, Russell Grant and [REDACTED] are talking about the carjacking charge. [REDACTED] tells Russell Grant she told the police he took the keys out of her hand and took her car.

On 05/01/12 at approx 1030 hrs, I responded to Shanahan's Towing (6211 Power Inn Rd) and searched both vehicle's ([REDACTED], Toyota & [REDACTED], Honda) associated with this case. Both vehicles sustained major damage as a result of the vehicle accident.

While searching the exterior of the Toyota, I located what appeared to be bullet holes in the front passenger side door. Multiple rounds appeared to have been fired through the front passenger side door from inside the vehicle. The metal around the bullet holes was flexed outward away from the vehicle. The damaged was generally in the center portion of the door. I was unable to determine an exact number of bullet holes as some were quite large as if more than one round passed through the opening.

While searching the interior of the Toyota, I located what appeared to be bullet holes on the interior panel of the front passenger door. The holes were consistent with the damage located on the exterior of the front passenger door. The bullet holes had been photographed previously on 04/21/12 by CSI.

I also located approx 1 gram of presumptive positive amphetamines inside a 1X1 Ziploc style baggie under the front passenger seat of the Toyota. The presumptive positive amphetamines were booked into evidence at the Hall of Justice.

I did not locate any bullet holes in the Honda.

I completed a vehicle release for both vehicles. The registered owners of both vehicles were contacted and advised of the vehicle release.

At approx 1530 hrs, after speaking with DA Michael Kane, I emailed Chip Pollock at the county crime lab with a DA-7 requesting the SKS rifle be tested to determine if it is semi-auto or full-auto or if the rifle has been tampered with. Additionally, I requested the shells casings located inside the Toyota and shell casing located inside [REDACTED] Stonecreek Dr # [REDACTED] be analyzed to determine if they were fired from the SKS rifle.

Author: 477 - JOHNSON, M 0706 (REDACTED)

Subject: DET. JOHNSON OBS

Related date/time: May-15-2012 (Tue.) 1345

I am a detective assigned to the Homicide Unit with the primary responsibility of investigating homicides, suspicious deaths, in-custody deaths, and officer-involved incidents.

On 4-22-12 at 0410 hours, I was notified by telephone to respond to West El Camino Avenue/Dorine Way in regards to an officer-involved shooting. I arrived at 0500 hours.

At 0510 hours, I attended an incident briefing conducted by Ofc. J. Kiser, who related the known facts at that time. At the conclusion of the briefing, homicide Sgt. F. Enriquez assigned me to interview Ofc. B. Surjan and civilian ride-along (REDACTED) at the homicide office.

I met with Ofc. Surjan and SPOA attorney David Mastagni Jr. at the homicide office, and commenced the interview in interview room #3 at 0644 hours. This interview was audio and video recorded on DVD and later booked as evidence.

During the interview, I examined Ofc. Surjan's department-issued duty weapon. I saw it was a Sig-Sauer P226 .40 caliber semi-automatic pistol. Attached to it was a department authorized miniature flashlight (Streamlight TLR1).

I viewed the condition of Ofc. Surjan's pistol as it was in his holster. I could see the pistol was properly secured within the holster with the hammer in the decocked position. At my direction, Ofc. Surjan removed the magazine from the weapon. I examined the magazine and found it was a 12 round capacity magazine, and it contained 10 live rounds of department issued Winchester .40 S&W ammunition. Officer Surjan then cycled the pistol's action and ejected one live round from the firing chamber. This showed that at the time of my examination, Officer Surjan's firearm was loaded with 11 live rounds, two less than capacity (12 rounds in magazine with one round in the firing chamber.)

I then examined two spare magazines which Ofc. Surjan possessed in a carrier pouch on his duty belt. These two magazines were identical to the magazine that was loaded in his pistol (12 round capacities). Each of the two contained 12 live-rounds each of Winchester .40 S&W ammunition. At the time of the examination, Ofc. Surjan carried a total of 35 live rounds out of a maximum capacity of 37 for duty-carry (three 12 round magazines with one round loaded in the firing chamber.)

Ofc. Surjan advised me he carried no back-up firearm and carried no additional magazines. Based on this evidence, the condition of his firearm and the number of live rounds present showed that it was consistent with two shots fired as he stated.

I later booked Ofc. Surjan's duty weapon, three magazines, and 35 live rounds of duty ammunition as evidence.

On 4-21-12, at approximately 0418hours, I was notified by SPD communications of a homicide call out at the intersection of West El Camino Ave and Dorine Way. I arrived on scene at approximately 0505 hours.

Upon arrival I observed West El Camino to be secured with crime scene tape. I entered the crime scene and checked in with the crime scene recorder, Ofc. Longanecker. I attended a briefing conducted by Acting-Sgt. Kiser of all information known to him at the time of the briefing. Sgt. Chan completed the scene observations which included all details provided during the briefing, see supplement.

At the conclusion of the briefing, I assisted Det. McCoy at [REDACTED] Stonecreek Dr APT [REDACTED]. I assisted with a consent search of the victim's apartment. During the search I was made aware that a shell casing was located on the bed in the master bedroom. The shell casing was left in place for collection by CSI at a later time.

At the conclusion of the search (W) [REDACTED] voluntarily agreed to be transported to SPD Hall of Justice for a follow up interview on this case. I transported (W) [REDACTED] and conducted the follow up interview at 5770 Freeport Blvd. The interview was DVD/DVR recorded and a copy of the recording was later booked as evidence. During the interview with (W) [REDACTED] I showed him two images. One image was an aerial view of Stonecreek apartments. I had (W) [REDACTED] identify where he was on this map at the time the confrontation with (S) Grant occurred. The second image was a Mugshot photo of (S) Grant. The Mugshot was printed on a single sheet of paper with no identifying information. Once (W) [REDACTED] viewed this photograph he identified the person as his mom's boyfriend Russell. The photos and recording were later booked as evidence.

I live at [REDACTED]. I was in my garage playing pool with some friends when we heard a loud crashing noise. We came out here to see what was going on when a guy came running past us. He said there was a black guy in the car with a gun. That is when we saw him fire 3-4 gunshots. I saw the flash of the gun coming from the car where he was at.

Thats when we backed up so we didn't get shot. I told my friend to go grab her phone to call 911. That is when the officer pulled up. I saw the black guy get out of the car. He was holding the rifle in his hands down by his waist and was walking around. I could not see where the officer was at. I heard the officer say "drop the gun" 2 or 3 times. Then I heard 2-3 gunshots and saw the guy put the rifle on the ground. After the shots he stumbled backwards and was stumbling around. He looked like something was wrong with him. Then I saw the other officers arrive and arrest him. I did not have my phone with me during any of this.

I was here at my friends house and we were playing pool in the garage. We heard a loud crash and came out here to El Camino Ave to see what happened. There was a male Hispanic running towards us. He only spoke Spanish so my boyfriend started talking to him in Spanish. He told my boyfriend there was a black guy in the car with guns. Thats when I heard a gunshot and I started to back up to around the corner. Then I heard another shot.

I looked and it looked like the black guy was in the back seat of the car. Then he climbed into the front passenger seat of the car and started waving a gun out the window. He fired the gun a couple times while he was in the passenger seat, Thats when I saw the officer pull up on scene.

I saw the black guy get out of the car holding the gun. I heard the officer say "drop the weapon" a couple times. Then I hard a couple more shots and the officer kept telling him to get on the ground. Thats all that I saw.

On 4-21-12 at approx 0251 hours I, Officer Monroe #616, was dispatched to W El Camino Ave/ Dorine Way for a vehicle accident. The call stated there was a head on collision and people running from the scene. Additional people started to call in saying they heard gunshots coming from the scene of the accident. There were additional callers stating there was a man in one of the vehicles armed with a shotgun. I responded code 3 to the scene of the accident. At approx 0252 hours Officer Surjan (1A17) advised he had shots fired. Shortly after that he said the subject had dropped the rifle and had his hands up. I arrived on scene at approx 0253 hours and observed the following in summary:

I parked my car directly in front of [REDACTED] W. El Camino Ave. on the north curb line. My car was parked behind Officer Masee's car, who had arrived on scene just ahead of me. As I exited my patrol vehicle I could see Officer Surjan and Officer Farren ducking behind the Honda at the northwest corner of the intersection. He said the suspect was located to the south of where I was at behind his patrol vehicle. I looked to the left and saw a male black adult, later identified as (S) Jerome Grant, walking from the driver side of Officer Surjan's vehicle around to the front of the vehicle. (S) Grant proned himself out in the middle of the intersection. I assisted Officer Surjan with taking (S) Grant into custody.

I located 2 spent shell casings near the driver side door of Officer Masee's vehicle. 1 casing was to the south of the vehicle and the other was just underneath the driver's side door. Both casings were silver .40 caliber Smith and Wesson casings. I recognized the casings as the duty ammo we are required to carry with our Sig Sauer .40 caliber handguns. I covered the casings with a folded index card so they would not be moved and could be identified as evidence by other officers.

1SM1, Sgt Kiser, advised me he needed me and Officer Hensley #263 to assist with conducting the canvass of the area. I conducted a canvass of the area with the following results:

[REDACTED] Thelma Ave: I contacted (W) [REDACTED] and (W) [REDACTED]. I obtained statements of what they saw (see separate statements).

On 4/21/12 I (Officer Farren #514) spoke with ( ). ( ) had been on a ride along with Officer Surjan #426 when Officer Surjan was involved in an officer involved shooting. I spoke with at the scene, near the corner of Dorine/W. El Camino. He told me the following in summary:

Tonight I was on a ride along with Officer Surjan. Officer Surjan is a friend of mine.

We were dispatched to a call here regarding a vehicle accident. The car was supposedly on fire. When we got here, I could see the cars had been in an accident. Both cars had smoke or steam coming from them. Both vehicles appeared to be unoccupied.

There were a couple other cars right near the accident. I wasn't sure if they were involved in the accident, or there to help. There were also some people out on the sidewalk. I think they were just there to see the accident.

Officer Surjan stopped the car just east of the accident and got out. He was standing by the door of the patrol car. I heard someone that was standing near the corner of Thelma/W. El Camino yell out, "He has a gun!"

I looked at the cars, but they still looked empty.

I then saw a male black adult, the one that police detained, get out of the Toyota. I saw that he was carrying a rifle. He held the rifle straight up and down as he got out of the car, then I saw him turn and level the rifle at the patrol car.

Officer Surjan then stepped back towards the trunk of the patrol car. I heard him yell, "Drop the gun! Show me your hands!"

Officer Surjan then fired two shots at the man with the gun. I didn't know if he hit him.

At about that time, I was getting out of the car. I was kind of kneeling near the car door, then I ran over to the fence at the east corner of Dorine/W. El Camino.

I looked and saw the guy who had had the gun advancing on the patrol car. I assumed he had dropped the gun at that time, since I didn't see it.

Officer Surjan moved around and took cover behind the Honda at that time.

I ran and took cover behind a big tree.

I heard Officer Surjan yell again, "Drop the gun! Show me your hands!"

The man was over near the patrol car at this time. He came out, then walked back behind the patrol car. He walked out, got down a little bit, then got back up. He was not complying with the officers orders.

About this time, other officers showed up. The man then came out again and began to get on the ground. The officers then took him into custody.

I was not scared during the incident. I ran because I was thinking that I was in a bad place to be. I didn't want to be in the middle of a gunfight.

On 4/21/12 I(Officer Farren #514) was dispatched to a vehicle accident near the intersection of Dorine Way/W. El Camino. Details to the call stated that subjects were running away from accident. I responded with 1A15(Officer Giy) from the intersection of Orchard/W.El Camino. Further details stated that there was a man with a gun in one of the vehicles. While en route the the call, other callers advised that gunfire was heard coming from the location of the collision. At the intersection of Truxel Road/W. El Camino I heard the sound of gunshots coming from the area. Officer Surjan then broadcast that shots had been fired. I responded C3 to the scene and observed the following in summary:

Officer Giy and I parked our cars just west of the scene. Officer Surjan had advised us not to proceed further in our patrol vehicles. We ran the rest of the way on foot.

I observed what appeared to be a two car vehicle collision. I saw Officer Surjan standing behind one of the involved vehicles with his gun pointed at the patrol car. He advised the subject with the gun was on the opposite side of his patrol vehicle. Officer Surjan advised that he did not know if the subject had the gun or not.

The man(later identified as Russell Grant) stood up with his hands clearly visible and walked out from behind the patrol vehicle. He appeared to be intoxicated. He had a blank stare on his face and appeare to be losing his balance. I did not observe a gun in his possession at that time.

Grant then walked back towards Officer Surjan's patrol vehicle, then back towards officers on scene, after given multiple commands.

Grant proned himself out on the ground and was then taken into custody by other officers, who had by then arrived on scene.

I located an Interarms SKS rifle(7.62x39mm) near the black Toyota that had been involved in the vehicle accident. It was about 3 feet from the rear driver's side quarter panel. The action of the SKS was open and I could see that there was not a bullet in the chamber. I secured the SKS in the trunk of Officer Surjan's patrol car.

I updated 1SM1(A/S Kiser) on what I had observed.

On 04/21/12, at approximately 0318hrs, I, Ofc. B. Meyer #552 (1A31), spoke to Witness ( ), at the corner of W. El Camino Av/Virgil Ct. He related the following to me, in summary:

About 40 minutes ago, I was asleep in my bedroom. I heard the sound of a vehicle accident coming from W. El Camino Av. I got up and walked out to W. El Camino Av and saw a really bad accident in the roadway. I walked toward the 2 cars that were involved to see if I could help. As I got about 10 feet from one of the vehicles involved, I heard 2-3 really loud gun shots coming from inside of it. I saw a bright flash of light inside and knew the person inside the car was firing a gun.

I went back to the driveway of ( ) Virgil Ct, where I could still see what was going on, but felt safer. I called 911. While I was on the phone I heard another 3 bursts of gunfire, about 9-12 gun shots, coming from the inside of the car. A few minutes later, a police officer drove up and began to walk up to the car crash. He didn't seem to know about the gun that I told the dispatcher about or didn't see the guy in the car? I yelled to the officer: "He's got a gun, he's got a gun!!!" I pointed at the car where the gunfire was coming from.

As the officer pulled his gun, a man immediately jumped out of the car holding a rifle up in front of the police officer and confronted him. I couldn't tell if he was pointing at the officer, but I heard 2 shots, that I think came from the officer's gun. The guy with the rifle came toward the officer and then immediately dropped the rifle. He ignored the officers yelling to stop and get on the ground, and came right up to the police car. Then, he leaned on the police car, but still did not listen to the officer's commands.

More police officers arrived and came over to help the first officer. The man still was not listening to the officers, so I went around the corner in case they started shooting again.

The first officer is really lucky that the guy with the rifle didn't shoot him as he walked up to the car.

On Saturday, 4-21-12 at approx. 0247 hrs, I, Officer Giy #843 was dispatched to the area of W El Camino Ave and Dorine Way regarding a two vehicle collision that had just happened. I responded from the area of W El Camino Ave and Orchard Ln (west of the scene). I made the following observations in summary:

While I was en-route I heard Officer Surjan advised of shots fired over the police radio. I was in the area of W El Camino Ave and Truxel Rd at that time. I continued code 3. When I got to the area of W El Camino Ave just west of Thelma Ave I heard Officer Surjan over the police radio tell us (Officer Farren was behind me) to stop right there. I stopped my patrol vehicle in the middle of #1 eastbound lane of W El Camino Ave just west of Thelma Ave.

I got out of my vehicle. I could see what looked like two vehicles sitting in the middle of the street (W El Camino Ave) just east of where I had stopped. Both vehicle had their lights off. I also saw a police vehicle with the emergency lights on and with the spotlight on stopped on W El Camino Ave just east of those two vehicles. The police vehicle was facing west towards me.

I ran to the southeast corner of W El Camino Ave and Thelma Ave. At that point I saw what looked like Officer Surjan standing behind one of the crashed vehicles. He was pointing his gun at his patrol vehicle. I did not see anybody there because the spotlight was blinding my view.

I ran up to Officer Surjan. I asked Officer Surjan where the person was. Officer Surjan pointed at his patrol vehicle. He stated that the suspect was standing by his patrol vehicle.

I pointed my flashlight in that direction and saw the suspect. Officer Surjan commanded the suspect to come out from behind his vehicle and to get down on the ground. The suspect complied and was detained in handcuffs.

A few minutes later I was hailed by a male and a female (victim [REDACTED] and victim [REDACTED]). They came from the area of W El Camino Ave and Thelma Ave. [REDACTED] told me she was the driver of the second vehicle involved in the collision.

I attempted to get a statement from [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] spoke very limited English and [REDACTED] did not speak any English. They both spoke [REDACTED]. Officer Canela #365 responded to the scene and took [REDACTED]'s and [REDACTED]'s statement in Spanish.

I live at apartment # ( ) with my mom, ( ). We are the only people that live in that apartment. Tonight I was in my room sleeping and my mom was in her room sleeping. I heard her ex-boyfriend, Russel, knocking on the front door. My room door was closed, so I couldn't see any of what happened, I could only hear it.

My mom answered the door and they started arguing. I don't even know what they were arguing about because I wasn't paying attention to it. They argue about once a week. I heard something about a rifle.

Russel and my mom went into her bedroom and kept arguing. They were yelling about money and a cell phone, but I don't really know what else. The arguing went on for about 5 or 10 minutes. Then my mom came and knocked on my door. She yelled that we needed to leave now.

My mom and I went running out of the front door and into the parking lot. About 5 - 7 seconds after we ran, I heard a gunshot inside of the apartment. Then Russel came out and ran toward my mom, holding the gun so it was pointed toward her. I felt like he was threatening her with the gun.

I was standing on the north side of the apartment complex entrance. My mom was standing on the south side of the entrance, about 20 feet from me. Russel went up to her and was yelling for her to give him her car keys. They were tugging on the keys back and forth. I told my mom to just give him the keys. She did.

Russel got into her Toyota and somehow ended up backing over a curb and into a fence. I didn't see where the car was parked, or how he back up into the fence. I just saw him hit the fence and then drive away out of the complex. My mom was standing right next to me as he hit the fence and drove away.

About 20 or 30 seconds later I heard a big car crash on W El Camino. my mom and I walked to her friends house, then came back to our apartment, then walked to where the accident was.

I don't know anything about guns.

I let Russel in and we went into my bedroom. He just kept saying over and over that people were after him and he needed to get away. Russel was paranoid and not making any sense. Russel was holding the gun this whole time. He wasn't really pointing it at anything.

In Summary:

On 4-21-12 at approx. 0251 I, Officer P. Massee #548 was dispatched to W El Camino/Dorine Way regarding a two car collision where one of the subjects may have a gun. I responded code 3 with lights and siren. While enroute Officer Surjan advised that there were shots fired.

I approached the scene traveling west bound on W EL Camino and observed red lights and blue lights indicating where the scene was at. I arrived on scene and parked facing west bound in the number two lane on W El Camino at the north east corner of Dorine.

As I exited my patrol vehicle I observed Officer Surjan facing south bound towards W El Camino with his gun drawn standing next to another officer. They were standing next to a black two door hatch-back that looked like it had just been in a collision with the black Toyota located just a couple feet away from the hatch-back. Officer Surjan advised me that I was parked next to the patrol vehicle where the suspect was laying down near. I did not see the subject at this time.

I repositioned myself on the passengers side of my patrol vehicle where I too was facing southbound towards the suspect. At that time I heard an officer calling the subject towards us. He was ordering the subject to keep his hands up and the had him prone himself out on the ground.

At this time two officers and myself approached the subject and placed him in handcuffs.

I patted down the subject and another officer assisted me in standing the subject up and walking him to my patrol vehicle.

I could smell a strong odor of alcoholic beverage coming from the subject. He had a hard time standing up and was staggering while walking towards my patrol vehicle. As I was patting him down again at my patrol vehicle I began to smell a strong odor of fecal matter coming from below the subjects waist. After patting him down I placed him into the rear seat of my patrol vehicle and the odor did not go away and only became stronger. Later at the hospital the doctor advised me that the subject had defecated on himself.

While patting the subject down I did not locate any identification on him and only his cell phone and some cash. I asked the subject to tell me his name and after multiple attempts of him mumbling he told me his name was Russell Grant and advised that he was 29 years old. When I asked him his address he advised me that it was [REDACTED]

I ran that name in our RMS system and located a Russell Grant DOB: 9-3-82 showing to be on parole for [REDACTED]). However, his address showed to be off [REDACTED] in Natomas.

I then requestioned the subject and asked him for his date of birth and he provided me with the same date of birth as the parolee 9-3-82. I asked Grant if he was on parole and he stated "Yes". I asked him if his address was off of [REDACTED] and he stated "Yes". I was able to locate a photograph of Grant in Leads and was able to confirm his identity through the photo on Leads.

At that time it was still undetermined who was involved in the incident, if there were still outstanding suspects and if there were victims from the shooting.

I asked Grant if he shot anyone with his gun that he had and he advised me "No". I asked him which car was his and he first stated "the Saturn"; I told him there wasn't a Saturn but there was a Toyota and a two door hatch-back and he advised me that his car was the two door hatch-back. I asked Grant where he was coming from and he stated that he had just come from the freeway and that he had been to a party where he believed that someone had spiked his drink with something.

The entire time while speaking with Grant he was slurring his words and mumbling. He was sweating profusely, couldn't keep his eyes open and his head was sagging. He was fading in and out of consciousness and having a hard time focusing on my questions.

I requested fire come check out Grant to make sure he was medically ok. Upon fire's arrival they advised that they would be transporting him to UC Davis Hospital.

I cuffed Grant to the gurney and rode with him to the hospital.

Once at the hospital the doctors cut Grant's clothes off. The doctor advised that Grant appeared to be ok pending the results of the Cat scan, blood tests, etc. and there didn't appear to be any major trauma.

I had the nurse perform a blood draw on Grant, collected the sample and left it at the scene for other officers to book later.

The entire time at the hospital Grant slept and did not wake up.

I later examined Grant's clothes for any bullet holes or blood. Grant had two shirts on at the time of the incident. He had on a white tank top and then a gray t-shirt over the tank top. He had on blue jeans, blue boxers and blue/white tennis shoes.

While looking at the gray t-shirt I located several holes. Three of the holes were grouped near the edge of the shirt and when I compared the holes it appeared as if two of those holes could have been an entrance and an exit hole for a bullet based on the size and location. I also located a third hole which was on the opposite side of the shirt and did not appear to be related to the other cluster of holes.

I bagged the clothes at the scene and left them for other officers to book later.

I was later advised that Grant's blood work came back and it showed him to have a BAC of .16% and tested positive for amphetamines.

At that time I was relieved by day shift and per the nurse on scene Grant

On the above time and date I, Ofc. Perez, spoke with w-1, , at his home. He told me the following in summary.

I was in my home and at approx. 0245 hrs I heard a loud crash. I came outside and saw other people looking at an accident approx. 100 yards east of my home.

I walked to the south east corner of Thelma/ W El Camino Ave. I was next to a brick and wrought iron fence when I saw a guy sitting in the drivers seat of the car that is most south. He was moving inside it and looked dazed.

I saw an officer pull up and get out of his car. I could hear people yelling to the officer "He has a gun! He has a gun!" I could clearly hear the officer yell "Show me your hands! Get on the ground! Show me your hands!" The guy in the car did not even listen to him.

The guy in the car jumped out quickly. I saw that he had both hands on something but I could not tell from my angle what he was holding. The officer was continually telling the guy to get down the entire time.

I began to hide behind the brick column. I heard in an order that I don't remember shots fired then the sound of metal hitting the ground or metal hitting the ground and shots fired. I knew then that he had a rifle.

I then heard the officer yelling "Get away from my car! Get away from my car! I could see the guy and officer making a 180 degree turn like they were dancing. I did not see what happened next but it appeared like the guy went down.

That officer was brave! I could not do the job you guys do for us. I could not go up against a guy with a gun.

On 4-21-12 at approximately 0740 hours, I (Ofc Paiz #270) interviewed W-( ) at his residence of ( ) W El Camino Ave. W-( ) stated the following in summary:

I woke up to the sound of a car crash. I looked out the living room window and saw a car in the middle of the road right in front of our house. ( ) went and called the police.

I noticed flashes of orange light coming from the passenger side of the vehicle. I wasn't sure what it was at the time but now I realize it was gun shots coming from that guys car (suspect). He was apparently sitting in the drivers seat and shooting out of the passenger side.

I walked to our side yard outside and saw the police officer arrive. The guy in the car (suspect) kicked his drivers door open and started running towards the officer. The officer then fired two shots at him I think. I immediately ducked down and ran inside my house and got on the floor.

I can't identify the guy who was shooting. It was really dark.

I heard the boom of the collision and then heard the bullets. I heard maybe five or six shots coming from one of the cars seconds after the accident. I told my parents to go to the other room but they were already looking out the window. I looked out the window too and saw some people going westbound and one went eastbound. Someone was standing near the curb (southern side of W El Camino) and was waiving cars to drive. I heard a male voicing yelling help, help but I couldn't see him. The police came and I saw the man raise his hands. I don't know where he came from but he was standing in the middle of the road when he raised his hands.

I called 911 when I first heard the accident but it took like twenty minutes for the police to get here. I never saw a gun. I only heard the gun-shots.

On 04/21/12 at approximately 1045 hours, while at ( ) Fairweather Dr., I (Officer R. Neri #594) contacted Witness ( ) and obtained the following statement in summary:

Early this morning (04/21/12) at about 2:56 a.m., I got out of bed to use the bathroom. I heard what sounded like a tire popping or the sound of a flat tire. When I looked outside my bedroom window (window faces west), I noticed what looked like a police undercover car (unk. model) driving from that cul de sac (pointing at Virgil Ct.). I didn't think anything of it and I continued to the bathroom, which is right next to my bedroom.

When I got back into my bedroom, I looked outside my bedroom window again and noticed (2) cars in the middle of the road (W. El Camino Ave.) near that street (pointing Dorine Way). Nobody was around these two cars and I couldn't tell what kind of cars they were because it was dark. I then saw a police car driving with it's lights and siren on coming from that direction (westbound). It looked like the Officer parked it just in front of the car that was more in the middle of the road.

When the Officer got out of his car, I heard someone yell to him from across the street, "He has a rifle!" The Officer then ran behind his car near his trunk and asked the guy who yelled to him, "Who has a rifle." I then heard what sounded like 2-3 gunshots and saw the Officer run towards the fence of a house which is a couple houses behind my house. This is where I saw the Officer use his radio to call for help.

The Officer then continued to talk to the guy across the street. Then I heard 2 more gunshots. I turned away for a moment to try and wake up my husband. When I turned back around, I saw another guy near the front driver's side bumper of the police car. I couldn't tell what he looked like because it was dark. It looked like he was wearing a white/striped shirt and white/plaid shorts. I don't know where he came from.

I don't know who was shooting at who.

Many more Officers started arriving and that's when they told him to get on the ground. He wasn't listening at first but when he did, the Officers finally handcuffed him.

I don't think I wouldn't be able to positively identify the guy that was arrested because it was dark.
